Tunbridge Wells Travel Guide for Tourists by Mark Edward

Article published on July 18th 2012 | Travel

Tunbridge Wells is a town of Kentish English County which was founded in the seventeenth century with the discovery of Chalybeate Spring. The town is said to have been established since 1606 according to the written history. The waters from the Chalybeate Spring in the town of Tunbridge Wells had restorative properties therefore the town got a key importance throughout the country and started to be known as the thriving spar resort town. A large number of notable people residing in United Kingdom including the members of royal family such as Queen Victoria and King Edward used to travel to Tunbridge Wells frequently throughout the year in order to take the waters from spring. This made it possible for the town to be known as a royal town. The prefix of Royal was added to the name of town officially in 1909 by King Edward. In the modern era, the town still remains the best spa town of the country with millions of tourists, national as well as international visiting it every year.

Transportation industry in the town is well established and settled. Dedicated cabs in Tunbridge Wells to and from Heathrow airport, Gatwick, Stansted, Luton and London City airports is available all time without any hassle. Getting to the town of Tunbridge Wells through car is quite convenient and simple. The highways and main roads connect the town directly with the neighboring towns, villages and suburbs making it easy for everyone to reach the town from all sides. The railway station of Tunbridge Wells is between the Pantiles and start of the high street. The rail station of Tunbridge Wells is located between the route of London Charring Cross and Hastings. The Southeastern trains serve the station with services from Tunbridge Rail Station to London. It takes an approximate of 40 minutes travel time for a direct train service and 55 minutes for a stopper. The tickets from Tunbridge Wells to London via Southeastern trains cost about Â£14. Tunbridge Wells airport transfers are also available conveniently.

The ground transportation firms in the town are known around the country. The offices of UKâ€™s best car and taxi hire companies are located in the town and offer superior class services. It is quite simple to get around the centre of Tunbridge Wells on foot as it is quite small and simple. There are a wide number of companies offering Tunbridge Wells private car hire and taxi services at competitive rates. Walking around the Pantiles which is the oldest area of town and High Rocks which are highly attractive sandstone outcrops linked by a total of 11 bridges is a treat for any kind of tourists. The Tunbridge Wells Sports Center offers great facilities for swimming and playing tennis or squash in a totally professional environment. Riding the Spa Valley Railway and experiencing the great scenic beauty from Tunbridge Wells to Groombridge and back. The Solomonâ€™s Museum and the Penshurst Place Gardens are some of the best places for fun and leisure especially for tourists. For your trip to the town you can easily make Tunbridge Wells cab reservation online via website or mobile application.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/tunbridge-wells-travel-guide-for-tourists.htm - Article Side

Mark Edward - About Author:
a Tunbridge Wells airport transfers are available conveniently. For your trip to the town you can easily make a Tunbridge Wells cab reservation online via website or mobile application.

Article Keywords:

Tunbridge Wells to and from Heathrow airport, Tunbridge Wells airport transfers, Tunbridge Wells private car hire, Tunbridge Wells cab reservation

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!