What is the first thing that comes to mind when you think of holidays? For me it is sunshine, blue water and beaches. For others it may be shopping, golf or even parties. Well when you stay in the Monte de Quinta suites you get all of this and so much more.

The suites are a new addition to the resort set in Algarve in Portugal where the weather is warm throughout summer, the sun shines and the beaches are inviting with crystal clear blue waters. The area is home to some spectacular coastlines where you can enjoy scenic and leisurely walks or wander off to do some shopping at the choice of boutique shops nearby.

The Monte de Quinta suites have their own swimming pool where you can soak up the sun in the afternoon before heading off to one of the fabulous nearby restaurants and a night of dancing at one of the many bars or nightclubs in the area.

Outdoor Lovers

For those who love outdoors like I do, you will not be disappointed with the lazy lagoons, spectacular coastlines, exquisite beaches, sunny weather and refreshing blue waters. Whether you are looking for a holiday where you can just put your feet up and unwind or go adventuring, walking or exploring, this area offers it all.

The coastline is alive with hidden caves to be explored, there are lots of superior golf courses to choose from and those who love shopping will adore the shops around the area.

Lucky for us here in the UK, Portugal is a short and affordable trip away, so you can choose to take a short break or go and soak up the sun for a week or more and you can easily fit it into your budget. This is so important these days with everyone still trying to get themselves back on track after the credit crunch.

If you take petrol prices, accommodation and spending money, a wonderful warm vacation in Monte de Quinta suits will probably cost you the same if not less than a holiday in the UK. The difference is you are guaranteed of warmth, sunshine, relaxing pools, terraces to sunbathe, beautiful beaches and crashing blue waves to refresh you after a day on the beach.

Superior Accommodation

The accommodation itself is comfortable and superior offering all the amenities you need to ensure you holiday is an enjoyable one. With the short trip you can start your vacation the minute your feet touch the ground, whether itâ€™s lie by the pool, get pampered at the spa or head off for some fun in the games room.
