Pattaya is an amazing city that can be found in the truly remarkable country of Thailand. This great city is visited every year by many thousands of tourists from every corner of the world. For many visitors to Pattaya the unbelievable stories of wild nights out and fun that they could only ever dream about, are probably the main reasons why they wish to visit Pattaya City. For others the beaches, shopping centers and vast amount of things to do in Pattaya are what brings them flocking to this tourist resort.

Usually most tourists are in need of some accommodation for their stay in this great city, and the shear amount of Pattaya hotels that are available, means that there will always be a hotel that will suit everyoneâ€™s specific needs and budget.

For some lucky visitors to Pattaya however the development of the Pattaya real estate market has allowed them to purchase a luxurious condo or beach front villa in Pattaya. In fact there are so many developments taking place at the moment, and most costing a fraction of the prices you would expect to pay for such properties back in the western world, it is little wonder that so many people are looking to purchase a property in Pattaya.

For frequent visitors to Pattaya it can make obvious sense to purchase some Pattaya real estate especially when you look at how much money you would normally be spending by staying at one of the Pattaya hotels. In addition the lucrative rental market here in Pattaya presents a golden opportunity for some investors to not only make use of a dream holiday home, but also to make a healthy return of their investment.

Many potential purchasers of property in Pattaya often wonder about how secure it is to invest in this city or indeed in Thailand. By using the services of a trusted Pattaya real estate agent you will find that it is in fact not so different from investing in the western world. There are a few differences that should always be pointed out for instance the maximum foreign ownership rule of 49% of most condo blocks, and that a foreigner cannot actually own land in their own name. A good real estate broker has all the information about this and more, and will advise you on the best course of action to take before you part with any of your hard earned money.

So whether you are looking for a luxurious 5 star Pattaya hotel to stay at, or maybe wishing to rent or even buy your very own dream holiday home, Pattaya has something to suit everyoneâ€™s taste and budget. Why not check it out!
