

Article Side

Vanuatu a Paradise Island of South Pacific Ocean by Davidwarner

Article published on December 7th 2011 | Travel

Vanuatu is a true piece of paradise on earth. If you are looking for some place where you can get down yourself completely then this is the place for you. Vanuatu has not become the commercial center that is peaceful neighbor Fiji has, as such, local customs is still an important place in your holiday experience. That does not mean that Vanuatu does not have luxury resorts, but also have several island bungalows blend perfectly into the natural environment.

For the adventurous there is nothing better than Vanuatu, there is no other place in the world that allows you to traverse an active volcano. In the green island of Tanna, one of the three main islands of the south is the active volcano Yassur. Famous for being the world's most accessible volcano, visitors can take in a four-wheel drive vehicle to as close as 150 meters from the crater. A walk of 10 minutes and they are right on the edge of the crater of 100 meters, which is about 300 meters wide. If the fire and lava is not your thing, there's always bungee jumping or diving in deep water. If you still feel the need for strong emotions, then a trip to the island of Pentecost, to see the immersion of the earth will be an unforgettable experience.

Vanuatu is not just for the more adventurous, as there are plenty of opportunities for you to have a nice relaxing getaway. Unlike many of its neighbors in the Pacific, Vanuatu is not plagued by political instability, in fact the only one of these islands, where a military coup has never happened. In the many islands of Vanuatu can enjoy a nice relaxing day bathing in the sun on the beautiful white sand beaches or offshore in the marine snorkel ling more diverse in the Pacific has to offer. You can also enjoy island cruises or travel by bus and helicopter buggy.

One of the things that make a wonderful Vanuatu is its people, the islanders are so nice and friendly, always willing to share their customs with tourists. It is clear that acts of kindness shown by the locals are authentic, as a tip goes against local traditions. The most appealing things about the life of the locals are of their music, dance and food. Vanuatu is home to the largest standing instrument, a carved wooden drum known as the Tam Tam. Here in your will get Vanuatu holiday house rental and in fact it is a best way to enjoy and mix with the local people.

The locals have these instruments in high esteem, and in the past, which were an integral part of tribal ceremonies, visitors can get miniature versions of these to retrieve memories. The various ethnic backgrounds of the people of Vanuatu are reflected in the cuisine, Chinese cuisine and French are dominant, however, there are delicious local dishes can be enjoyed as the coconut crab, a dish you will not find anywhere else. Due to the rich marine life surrounding the island, features seafood heavily on the menus of many resorts. It is prepared in many different ways to give your taste buds nothing less than absolute satisfaction. There are also several fine wines and delicious fruit drinks can be enjoyed.

Vanuatu offers so much for so little, its natural beauty is incredible, and the many adventures that will make your tour treasured one as well as enjoy Vanuatu accommodation and other facility.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/vanuatu-a-paradise-island-of-south-pacific-ocean.htm> - Article Side

Davidwarner - About Author:

MatthewNicholson is an experienced writer in Travel industry and works for MeleMagic.com, a leading tavel industry in Australia. At present, he is writing on different topics like a Vanuatu accommodation, Vanuatu holiday houses, a Vanuatu holiday house rental and others. To find more info, please visit www.melemagic.com.

Article Keywords:

Vanuatu holiday house rental, Vanuatu accommodation

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!