Of all the things to see and do in Vanuatu there is nothing more exciting than travel to Yasa volcano on the southern island of Tanna. This is the only place in the world they are allowed to stand at the edge of an active volcano. After sun set you can view the most mesmerizing sight of fireballs shooting from the volcano you could be forgiven for thinking you were on another planet and making your Vanuatu Vacations a memorable.

Port Vila one of the most lively island of Vanuatu islands. Its night life is most amazing. On party nights Melanesian traditional dance and good food are the centers of the party. Local bands performing music chain in a trance you're happy as kava, a local drink, fill the stomach. Kava is not intoxicating, but not more than 4 shells (50 VT) if you are not used to it, and leave 15 minutes between each.

There is too much to do during the day. Because of its diversity and marine waters, Vanuatu has one of the best fishing experiences you will ever. At Easter there is the challenge of Easter fishing competition, so if ever there at the time, be sure to enter because it is fun. The island also offers many other relaxing fun activities like diving in deep water to see shipwrecks, diving on coral reefs, swimming with dolphins and horseback riding along the beautiful white sand beaches.

If you are not a person of the sea, you can go on several trips across the island by bus, helicopter, buggy or on their own two feet, you can even stop at a waterfall and enjoy a nice swim in fresh water pristine river or sunbathe in the water flowing in the own downfall. The resorts in Vanuatu are also several golf courses for those of us who like a good swing.

The months of June through September are when the people of the island really come alive, as it is festival season. If you happen to be there at this time of year, you definitely do not want to miss the Dance Rom, which is a two-day celebration of the community that follows a traditional ancestral dance called Rom. The Rom is a spectacle that passes mysterious hidden behind a cloak and prompted by the rhythmic music played by a Tam-Tam, the largest instrument in the world standing. Other festivals worth attending are diving from the ground or the festival of Nagol April to June, Fanlo Festival of the Arts Festival Pankumo circumcision (the ancient rite of passage from boys to men) in August, and Special Maewo Cultural Festival in September.

Vanuatu's beautiful island resort offers a luxury getaway merged with local traditions. Here you will also find Vanuatu Holiday Houses at an affordable rate. A trip to here you will remember throughout your life.
