Article Side
Various Attractive Destinations of Dalhousie by Rahul Ranjan

Article published on February 17th 2012 | Travel

Dalhousie Tour is a famous tour among the tourists who are nature lovers and want to spend their vacation in a peaceful environment. This tourist spot is very much famous among the Indian tourist as well as foreign tourist. If you want to enjoy Dalhousie tour to a great extent than try to take the help of packages as they will offer you the opportunity to explore the charisma of this beautiful hill station.

Dalhousie is a peaceful town. So it is a perfect place for the tourists who want to spend their time far from the hustle and bustle of the city life. In this picturesque town, you will get the opportunity to view buildings of colonial era, low roofed hotels and stalls. You can also enjoy walking along the paths and the treks covered with pine trees.

This peaceful town was a colonial town and the gateway to the valley of Chamba. This town was established in 1854 by Lord Dalhousie who was the British governor general. This beautiful place is surrounded by alpine vegetation. Here the tourists enjoy the panoramic views and charming architecture of plains as well as mountainous ranges covered with snow.

Apart from scenic beauty of the place, Dalhousie tour offers the tourists to visit various important attractions of Dalhousie. Some of the important destinations are:

Subhash Baoli: This place is located at an altitude of 2, 085m. From here you will get the beautiful view of nature and the snow capped mountains.

Khajjiar: This place is one of the most popular retreats for the visitors. There is a saucer shaped meadow which is surrounded by the pines and in the middle there is a lake. There is a 12th century temple of Khajjinag. There is also a beautiful golf course which adds a great beauty to this place. Tourists like this picturesque spot due to saucer shaped meadow which is located amidst the deodar forest. In its centre there is a lake which has a floating island, a little temple, a golf course and a forest rest house.

Kalatope: This place is located just at a distance of 5 kms from Dalhousie. This place is a beautiful getaway associated with an enchanting palace, a panoramic view and it also includes a forest rest house. This place is also famous as the home of Dogri families. There is also a little Kalatope Sanctuary which has varieties of wild animals like Bears, Deer, Leopards etc.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/various-attractive-destinations-of-dalhousie.htm - Article Side

Rahul Ranjan - About Author:
Author is an expert writer mainly focuses on travels related topics. He has written many articles for a Manali Tour Shimla Tour and a Shimla Manali Tour. This time he is writing on dalhousie tour and places to see in Dalhousie. Last two years he is rendering his service to himachal-tour.com.

Article Keywords:
Dalhousie tour, dalhousie tour package.

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!