Two of the awesome tourist destinations in Himachal Pradesh and must visit spot especially for nature lovers. River Beas has formed the broad Kullu valley, which lies between Manali & Largi; in fact Manali is just about 40 km away from Kullu. Kullu is popularly known as the valley of gods, as the place houses many ancient temples apart from the glorious scenic beauty. The snow clad mountains, pine and deodar forest along with expansive apple orchards the two valleys are truly nature's precious gems.

Must see places in Kullu

Apart from the fascinating scenic splendour, Kullu offers a temple treat; one can visit the Bijili Mahadev temple, Raghunath temple, Narsingh temple, Basheshwar Mahadev temple and Mahadevi Tirth are few temples to name. Adventure-enthusiastic tourists can involve in fishing in Katrain, Raison, Kasol and Naggar. You can fish along Tirthan and in Hurla Kund as well. River rafting another popular activities in River Beas and there are a lot trekking regions too.

Places to see in Manali

Manali is yet again awe-inspiring holiday destination; there are no words to express the magnificence that Manali holds for travellers, you will simply want to immerse in the enchanting beauty of the place. Visit the Hidimba temple, Vashisht temple, Manu temple, Solang Pass and Rohtang Pass are important places to cover and most Manali packages include these must-see spots. Other than this, there are lot of activities that travellers can indulge in Manali: trekking, fishing, river rafting, skiing, paragliding, ice-skating, mountaineering, rock-climbing etc.

Some tips

Avoid visiting Kullu Manali during the peak season, when there is lot of crowd buzzing that doesn't leave you to enjoy the nature at its best. The accommodation and transport facilities during season will be difficult to obtain unless you book in far advance and are expensive. The peak season in Kullu Manali is summer starting from mid March extending through June. It is then the snow would be melting off the mountain caps and go join the small streams down the valley and it unravels the mystic beauty of Himalayas. Yet if you don't have accommodation there is no point going.

Why not make it during off-season? The best reason why you should is for the deals you get at hotels in Manali. Although monsoons can be season of landslides and you cannot venture out all by yourself without the help of a local guy. Rafting in the River Beas is also a strict No No during monsoon for you would witness it in its best of fury. But if you want to have a relaxing holiday and enjoy nature in its lush green color monsoon can be the best time. The start of winter is still regarded as the best time to visit Kullu Manali.
