

Article published on May 15th 2012 | Travel Tips

With every passing year, Dubai is becoming more and more popular among travellers all around the world. But what make this Middle East destination so hot and interesting? Is it its shopping scenario alone? No, the answer is the perfect blend of modernity and culture with amazing sightseeing attractions. The increasing number and frequency of direct flights to Dubai tell the growing influence of Dubai in a more elaborate way. If you find it little bit expensive then do not worry at all as number of bargain flights to Dubai are there to keep a check on your budget. Though Dubai is filled with a number of things to do and see yet there are some top attractions that you must not want to miss, otherwise your trip to this enchanting land is surely incomplete.

Burj Al Arab Hotel: Not only considered one among the tallest hotels in the world but also reputed as one of the most expensive accommodation properties worldwide, Burj Al Arab is an iconic symbol of Dubai city. But most of the tourists adore this masterpiece for its unique architecture and design. In addition the free public beach nearby the hotel gives tourists excellent location for photography.

Burj Khalifa: Earlier known as Burj Dubai, Burj Khalifa has several sparkling features that make it a top attraction of Dubai. Standing proudly as the tallest building in the world, Burj Khalifa features an observation deck on its 124th floor from where you can admire the striking beauty of Dubai. If this doesn't excite you much then what about a tour of Dubai Mall, the largest shopping mall in the world. The mall is a part of the Burj Khalifa complex and also includes two other gem attractions of Dubai, i.e. Dubai Aquarium and Dubai Ice Rink.

Ski Dubai: This indoor ski resort remains always in the top list of travelers visiting Dubai. Ski Dubai is the first of its kind in the entire Middle East. Enjoy the chill atmosphere of the resort while playing amazing games in the real snow all the year round.

Hatta Village: Also known as "Dubai Heritage Village", it is constructed around an old settlement to give visitors a feel of traditional Arabic hospitality. Recreated in a typical mountain village style in a lovely oasis, Hatta Village helps you in discovering the charm of old Dubai, mud houses, palm leaves and many more undiscovered attractions of the city.

Dubai Gold Souk: Who ever want to give it a miss while touring Dubai? Located in the heart of Dubai's commercial district, Gold Souk is a traditional market with over 300 retailers trading exclusively in jewellery. The market is world famous for its large variety of gold ornaments sold at amazing prices. Whether it is vacations or purely a business deal, Dubai offers an oasis of ultimate comfort, elegance and pleasure for all. Besides these must visit attractions, Dubai features several other interesting places too that you will admire equally. Burj Nahar, Jumeirah Mosque, Jumeirah Archeological site, Dubai Museum, Bastakiya Quarters, Palm Islands, Wild Wadi Waterpark and Deira Covered Souk are other gem attractions of Dubai. Whatever is your purpose of visiting this land and whether you prefer direct flights to Dubai or bargain flights to Dubai, one thing is sure and that is a combination of comfort and hospitality.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/amazing-top-5-places-to-visit-in-dubai.htm> - Article Side

Deepak Nangla - About Author:

To know more about Dubai and it's great sightseeing attractions or find a bargain flights to Dubai
OR a direct flights to Dubai please visit our website for further details.

Article Keywords:

Direct Flights To Dubai, Bargain flights to Dubai, Book Dubai flights, Cheap Flights To Dubai

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!