Beaches reflect the glamour and beauty and the beaches of India are quite famous because of the pristine natural elegance that cannot be exactly described in words. India is coastline rich country and this becomes the reason that you have got some of the splendid beaches of intense magnificence. There is a specialty in the beaches in India and all these factors are responsible for increasing the romance among the couples who have come to tour these wonderful beaches of pristine eminence. There is wise saying that beaches, love and romance go hand in hand. India has a charming beach destination called Goa which is primarily called the Rome of the east. Goa is a world acclaimed destination and there are certain beaches like Palolem, Donapala, kalangute, Kolva and many more and all these are best for the general people as well as the celebrators of the honeymoon. You have some wonderful resorts made by some eminent hospitality chains like the Taj and Leela. Staying in such places of luxurious feel is itself a boon for the love r of the beach. There is a ban on nude bathing but women can do it in the private resort extensions and it is really an experience that one can cherish throughout the life. You have got the night parties in the Goa beaches and going for the long cruise in the deep sea is itself an experience that cannot be forgotten in life. If you are interested in the Goa package tours, it will be better for you go for it as it can be a cost savvy affair. Apart from the luxurious beach cottages, you also have the budgeted ones on some of them and thus the concept that Goa is meant for the tourists with good amount of money in their pocket is not correct.

Beaches of India are associated with the 4S factor and this makes them the incredible spots for some of the best enjoyments of the season. There is a combination of greenery of the trees and the gushing of the waves and this makes the experience all the more interesting. Not visiting kerala and talking about Indian beaches is itself a joke. The person who talks like this does not actually have any experience of the beaches. You can go to Kovalam and this is a wonderful beach of eminence. These are actually three beaches and they are divided. Kovalam is a wonderful beach and you can have the splendid ayurvedic massage on this beach. It will be a breathtaking experience if the couple takes a nude Ayurveda massage on the secluded portion of the beach although public nudity is banned on such beaches now a days.

Beach India is an experience if you go to the beaches of Lakshadweep. It is the crystal blue sea surrounding the island. It is the purest beach and to celebrate honeymoon here is an experience of life. It will really make you feel the pristine elegance of the beaches in India.
