There are many flights to Mumbai from Hyderabad. Speaking of the prominent destinations in India, Gurgaon is fast developing as a business city and consequently more hotels are on the rise.

There are numerous Hyderabad flights commuting to and from the various cities round India and even the world. Some of the domestic flights are Air India, Kingfisher Airlines, Spice Jet, Paramount Airways, JetLite and Go Air. The household names in the international flights that fly to Hyderabad are Qatar Airways, Gulf Air, Singapore Airlines, Saudi Arabian Airlines and Sri Lankan Airlines among others. The information on the different airfares and flight schedules are found on the internet websites. The Rajiv Gandhi International Airport remains bustling with activity with domestic and international flights landing at Hyderabad every hour of the day.

Many tourists steer clear of international flights because of the exorbitant air ticket rates. It is generally felt that air travel is very expensive so people opt to travel by train, bus or car. However now there are attractive discounts available on the air ticket rates so one can easily opt for the flight of their choice. Flying to Hyderabad from the various cities round India has now become quite comfortable and convenient. This capital of Andhra Pradesh is also known as the City of Pearls. It is the fifth metropolitan city in India.

The fascinating association of the modern technology and the age old traditional heritage of the city continue to enchant the tourists. Hyderabad derives its name from Queen Hyder Mahal. There is the Hussain Sagar Lake which divides Hyderabad and the city of Secunderabad. If you have a penchant for shopping Hyderabad is the place you wish to be in. Bazaar LAAD is where you can buy intricate silver and gold jewelry. Take home the famous Hyderabad pearls as mementoes of your trip.

The nightlife for the youngsters rocks in Hyderabad with nightclubs like Chimneys, Bottles and Treasure Island. Some of the famous restaurants which serve sumptuous meals are Riviera, Bawarchi Restaurant, Deccan Foods and Dum Pukht. The return flight to Hyderabad from Mumbai can be accessed by logging online and the tickets can be booked on the websites.

When we speak of prominent places in India, Gurgaon automatically springs to mind as one of the major commercial cities in India which is often frequented by executives and dignitaries. Consequently the number of Gurgaon hotels has risen on a massive scale. For the people on a tight budget, the budget hotels have schemes which provide meals and lodging at cheap rates. One can avail of Gurgaon holiday packages to stay here. Despite the reduced expenses the tourists receive the same warm welcome and hospitable service which they would have received at a more expensive hotel. Some of these hotels are the Mayflower Courtyard and the Rama Residency. The luxury hotels include deluxe rooms and luxury suites with attached baths, costly toiletries, mini bars in rooms, air conditioning, access to the internet and a whole lot more. Of course the prices are a little on the higher side. Some luxury hotels are Fortunate Select Global and Galaxy Hotel Spa.
