Article published on January 7th 2012 | Travel Tips

Manila the capital city of Philippines, also fondly called -The Pearl of the Orient- is one of the most entertaining cities of the country as it boasts of many luxury hotels, modern shopping malls, parks and recreational areas. The city is also a combination of ancient and modern heritage. Its historical heritage dates back to the Spanish era. The old churches and art galleries depict the Hispanic influence on the making of the city. The city is also credited of being a center of culture, politics, economics, and commerce. The flights to Manila are easily available to this diverse city and it is worth mentioning that the Manila flights are very well connected.

The most famous of the historical structures is The Intramuros a â€˜Walled Cityâ€™. It is home to diverse tourist attractions including religious destinations such as the San Agustin Church and the Manila Cathedral, art galleries and museums like Casa Manila, Bahay Tsinoy, San Agustin Museum and also educational centers such as Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila and Mapua Institute of Technology. The cheap flights to manila that are available make sure that history enthusiasts, art admirers and knowledge seekers, all have an enriching experience visiting the Intramuros. The cheap flights for Manila therefore aim to provide the best holiday experience.

Again a visit to the Rizal Park is a must for beauty admirers. Located on the heart of the city the park is spread across 58 acres of land. It is the most famous parks of the country with the monument of Philippines national hero, Dr. Jose Rizal situated here increasing its significance. The park also called â€˜Luneta â€™ consists of ornamental gardens, a chess plaza, and a skating rink. The flights for Manila and flights from Manila available provide ample options to the visitors to plan their tour itineraries covering these destinations.

The Manila bay also attracts many tourists and the star attraction being the majestic golden setting sun. One can also enjoy boating in the Manila Yacht Club. The Manila Baywalk is a perfect destination for a romantic dinner. The abundant restaurants, cafes, and bars provide you with many dining options. The Manila flightsâ€™ booking is done throughout the year to avail the Manila flights tickets to visit these places.

The National Museum of the Philippines, the premiere center of the countryâ€™s natural and cultural heritage is also worth visiting. It displays artifacts belonging to the fields of history, anthropology, ethnography, archaeology to botany and geology. Before visiting the city one should gather updated Manila travel news about the above mentioned places of tourist interest and also other destinations like The Fort Santiago, The MalacaÃ±ang Palace, The Chinese Cemetery, Quiapo Church, Plaza San Luis, The Cultural Center of the Philippines and the Manila Ocean Park to fully exploit the tourism potential of the city.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/cheap-affordable-tickets-in-flights-to-manila.htm - Article Side

Anjelinaclarke - About Author:
Angelina is a specialist content writer at a flights to manila for business development. If you want to know about manila flights booking then you must visit flightstomanila.me.uk or call 0203 142 5160 for book your a cheap flights for manila.

Article Keywords:
flights to manila,cheap flights for manila,manila flights

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!