Your Manali holiday is sure to be the most exciting tour and the most memorable one. When you decide to visit Manali, it is wise to avail of the Manali tour package. The tours are well organized and compact. They cover all expenses of transportation, accommodation and sight-seeing as well as adventure sports. The small town of Manali offers its visitors exotic landscapes that simply keep you engrossed. The high mountains are covered with snow and the sun rays lend a different dimension to the Himalayas that is considered to be the abode of Gods. The clear waters of the River Beas and the smell of fresh waters are really enchanting. This river quietly flows through the town and goes down through the deep gorge that can be seen from the Kothi Village.

The green valley of Solang, the mountain lakes that allow boating, the rows of colorful flowers in the meadows are so picturesque that you will be dumbfounded. Nature has so much in store for us and we hardly care to see it. After a dayâ€™s rest on arrival the authorities will take you to the main touristsâ€™ locations like the ancient temples of Manu, Hidimba Devi and Sage Vasistha. The Rohtang pass and Kangra Valley are also interesting spots in Manali. Adventure seekers can go trekking to the ranges that are close by with guides. It is not at all wise to go alone as travelers are not so used to the paths and the ways of life in this place. Paragliding, snow-skating, skiing, mountaineering are some of the sports enjoyed by the tourists who come on a Manali tour. Shopping is a pleasant experience in the Mall at Manali and you can buy excusive items to carry home with you as a memento.

The stay at the hotels too is quite comfortable and they offer all amenities to make your stay an enjoyable one. There are various cuisines available to choose from. Food is served with care and the quality is also commendable. The weather in Manali is very pleasant all throughout the year and so you can opt for the Manali tour packages any time you get a break from your work.

If you are looking out for a place to relax and have fun also, visit the Manali. It is the ideal place for a holiday for all ages. Avail of the package tours for your Manali holiday and enjoy to the utmost.
