

Article Side

Have Fun on Your Train Journey by Sameer Dsouza

Article published on January 23rd 2012 | Travel Tips

Train travels have been a fascinating experience for almost everyone in their childhood and also an experience that one longs for. As the person grows up, his or her work and other household responsibilities grow in size as well. One of the best ways to decrease stress and tension is to travel. Travelling along with family or friends rejuvenates a person and strengthens the bond between family and friends.

India is a country filled with beautiful places and rich cultures. Most of the states in India have their own unique religion, culture and language. India is a famous place among foreign travellers. For the purpose of national travelling, both the masses of India and the foreign visitors prefer Indian railways which are estimated to be boarded by more than 16 billion people. The trains are a crucial part of common man's life. It is an affordable means of transport that picks you up from a city and drops you to another.

Indian Railway travel services have improved a lot. Over the years the railways authorities have become very responsive. Now, there are cleaner stations, compartments and railway stations for the comfort of the travellers. One can visit the leading tours and travel websites which offer services like online Irtc ticket booking. The train schedule, the route, the ticket status etc. are important pieces of information that these sites provide for trains like Lucknow Duronto. The option of ticket cancellation can also be done through these websites.

The trains like Lucknow Duronto have different compartments and classes. One can choose between a first class or second class, 2 tier or 3 tier, air conditioned or non air conditioned, sleeper or chair car etc. according to their need or affordability. Travel is made easier by luggage misplacement service, serving of food and even online Irtc ticket booking and other such services.

A train travel is more than just transportation as it guarantees to be a great memorable experience. There are plenty of people in the train with conversation, tales and stories that will be a part of your tour. Most of the foreign tourists travelling in Indian railway trains find it the best way to interact with the native people and seeing the diversity of people. The train passes through various small towns and state outskirts which are beautiful to look at. The comfort of the services along with the company of family and friends marks a great journey.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/have-fun-on-your-train-journey.htm> - Article Side

Sameer Dsouza - About Author:

Author visited Lucknow recently via a Lucknow Duronto and preferred online a Irtc Ticket Booking.

Article Keywords:

Lucknow Duronto, Irtc Ticket Booking

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!