Article Side

Holidays in India - well-known Destinations by Mike Atherton

Article published on May 21st 2012 | Travel Tips

India is a fascinating country full of mystery and brimming with historic tales of battles and princes. When you holiday, you want the best cultural experience as well as a good deal. This is possible with the help of tour packages to India. Holidays to India are filled with beautiful experiences like visits to century old cities and monuments, trips to temples and sanctuaries as well as excursions and adventure filled experiences. While planning out your holidays for India, you need to be sure about why you are visiting India. Is it for a relaxed vacation by the beach, traveling to historical locations or to enjoy a cultural experience. It may include all three. In that case get in touch with a good travel agent online who can offer you a great package at a reasonable price to enjoy the mystic country, India.

Discover South India

South India is a beautiful part of India and is filled with culture and music. It has some of the oldest temples and most magnificent structures. You can visit the cities of Pondicherry, Chennai, Madurai and Periyar. Periyar is known for its Asian Elephants. In Cochin, you can visit the harbor and take a look at the Chinese fishing nets. Also visit the St. Francis church while on your India Holidays. In Chennai make sure that you make a trip to the tomb of St. Thomas the apostle. The fort museum is also a lovely place to visit while in South India. It is full of artifacts from the past. Holidays to India will let you experience the wondrous cities of the south as well as the crafts on display in local markets. The textiles in south India are beautiful and very reasonable. Make sure you visit a market in order to truly experience the feeling of a local bazaar.

Luxurious North India

Your holiday for India is a luxurious getaway. Such holidays must always be booked in advance and while doing this keep in mind the places you would like to visit while in the north of India. Cities like Delhi and Jaipur are obvious and thrilling choices. The town of Ranthambore is home to a national park. The sanctuary boasts of royal Bengal Tigers and elephants which roam free in the park. Your holiday to India must be packed with visits to the local markets, artisans and luxurious palaces of Jaipur.

Online booking

When you are looking for that ultimate holiday for India make sure you find out about the packages being offered by agents online. These are usually more reasonable. Before you book you holiday, check the it nary being offered and whether it suits your needs. The hotels and travel plans must be crystal clear as well.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/holidays-in-india-well-known-destinations.htm - Article Side

Mike Atherton - About Author:
Transindholidays.co.uk suggested special summer vacation package. For more detail click here a Holidays to India, a holidays for India and a India Holidays.

Article Keywords:
Holidays to India, holidays for India, India Holidays

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!