Houseboat Tours in Kerala â€“ a Journey through Serene Backwaters

by Amit30ets@gmail.com

Article published on March 28th 2012 | Travel Tips

Kerala is one of the most charming states in India located at the southern province alongside the beautiful Arabian Sea. It is a globally acclaimed tourist destination and has many appealing attractions to lure visitors. The state is home of many scenic beaches, hill towns, pilgrimages, heritage sites, wildlife destinations but its excellent backwater network cannot be compared with any of its tourist attractions. Backwater of Kerala is 900 km long network of interconnected water bodies that attracts visitors from over the world in large population. Boat cruise is the best way to explore beauty of serene backwater of the state.

Backwaters are the major attraction of Kerala tourism. There are many popular backwater destinations located across the state. Alleppey, Kumarakom. Kasargod, Kollam and Kottayam are the most popular of them. Tourists will enjoy the abundant of nature and serenity around these places on their boat cruise that will passes through paddy fields, palm and banana grooves and several remote places. On sailing through the rural villages tourists have chance to interact with local people and know about their lifestyle. Vacationers can also buy food items, traditional stuffs and handicrafts from local people on their backwater cruise.

Alleppey is a prime tourist destination in Kerala. It is the most popular backwater holiday spot of the state. The place is well known for its excellent backwater network and virgin natural beauty. Famed as the â€œVenice of Eastâ€•, Alleppey also attracts large number of nature lovers due to its lush green surroundings and huge paddy fields. Its excellent connectivity from several other backwater destinations of the state including Kumarakom and Cochin makes it more important. There are numbers of interesting sites also located around this town. The popular Alleppey beach will offer you most scenic views of Arabian Sea. Ambalappuzha Sri Krishna Temple, Edathua Church, Champakulam Valia Palli and Krishnapuram Palace are the other interesting sites to visit in Alleppey.

Luxury Houseboat Tours in Kerala also attract large numbers of honeymooners and lovemaking couples around the world. Houseboats are easily available at all the popular backwater destinations around the state. A luxury Kerala houseboat will offer you exceptional tourism facilities like a five star hotel. With world-class luxury in the lap of nature couples can enjoy most romantic moments of their life. Uninterrupted solitude, pleasing atmosphere with melodious vibrations of flowing waters and peeing of birds will make Kerala boat cruise a memorizing experience for honeymooners and compel them to visit this wonderland again and again.

There are many tour operators available in the country offer well planned Kerala houseboat tours according to the budgets of vacationers. You can take their help to plan your trip. They will provide you excellent services also at the reasonable cost.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/houseboat-tours-in-kerala-a-journey-through-serene-backwaters.htm - Article Side

Amit30ets@gmail.com - About Author:

Amit Goyal is an eminent analyst and writer in Tour and Travel related topics. He has authored many books on tour guide for a Kerala Houseboat Cruise and a Backwater in Kerala.

Article Keywords:
Kerala Houseboat Cruise, Houseboat Tours in Kerala, Backwater in Kerala

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!