The Malaysian city of Kota Kinabatu has only one airport but it has two terminals and is one of the busiest airports in Malaysia.

Terminal 1 handles all international flights, and Malaysia Airlines domestic flights. The terminal is spacious and has plenty of facilities for travellers.

On the departures floor there is a McDonaldâ€™s that is open 24 hours a day and offers WiFi connection, and a Coffee To Go, an Italian food outlet serving from 6 a.m. until midnight.

The Deli France chain also have an outlet that is becoming popular with travellers who sometimes prefer to purchase a Deli France takeaway to eat on their flight.

Terminal 2 is used by low cost airlines and, since an update in 2007, facilities have improved and there is a good selection of food outlets for passengers.

There are two eateries situated on the 1st floor. The Asia Delight CafÃ© serves pasta and other light Western food, as well as local specialities.

On the same floor is a Kentucky Fried Chicken, one of the most popular fast food outlets in Malaysia. Like McDonaldâ€™s, it has 24-hour service and WiFi.

With food and drink available on a 24 hours basis, the airport is popular with backpackers as it is possible to stay the night in the terminals between flights, but passengers who prefer a little more comfort will find Kota Kinabalu Airport hotels are plentiful, and lie just three or four kilometres from the terminals.
