Luxor Things to Do by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 29th 2011 | Travel Tips

Anyone planning to visit Luxor should plan to be busy. There is so much to do that, inevitably, visitors find their time there to be far too short. Luxor has such a multitude of tourist spots that travellers will want to have a list the places they want to visit before coming to Luxor. Karnak Temple, the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of the Queens, the Temple of Hastepshut, the Colossi of Memnon and Luxor Temple are just the start. All of these attractions are located near to hotels in Luxor, so guests wonâ€™t have to travel far.

Guests can talk to the front desk at their hotel to book a carriage ride through the city of Luxor. Those who love adventure and fun can go ballooning, or take a seaplane tour to view the lovely city of Luxor from high above. All the arrangements for ballooning and seaplane tours can be made by the staff of many hotels in Luxor.

However tight oneâ€™s schedule may be when in Luxor, they must find time for at least a short cruise on the River Nile. The view of the sun setting across the river is one no one ever forgets. Again, check with your hotelâ€™s concierge desk for help with bookings.

For a nice shopping spree, make sure to also visit the bazaars, shops and stalls dotted throughout the city. They offer a huge variety of things to buy at reasonable prices. Visitors should feel free to utilize their bargaining skills.

Last but not least, enjoy the Egyptian food and local delicacies while in Luxor.
