Manali  tourism is a  very exciting phenomenon and visiting this destination which lies , 40 km closer to  Kullu valley on the National Highway leading to Leh, with wonderful landscape  and beautiful spots for adventure sports, besides heart fulfilling environment of greenery, jubilantly flowing Beas river and mighty mountain peaks, will be a life time experience.

Manali is believed  to be named after the originator of Hindu dharma shastra, Manu, the town originally called Manu-Alaya meaning â€˜the abode of Manuâ€™ and later transformed into its present calling. Legends are narrated here that  Manu stepped off his ark only at Manali to recreate human life after the great  deluge destroyed the living beings in the world.

Manali tour packages are available from all important cities in India and world travelers too can get into these packages with online communication with the Travel agencies, which  will take the tourists to witness Manaliâ€™s sprawling orchard industry, cultivating and supplying rich varieties of fruits to every part of the globe.

Manali tour itinerary generally commences from New Delhi, all by road then on and will be of duration of 4 days to 12 days, depending upon places of coverage and travelers from other parts of India buy a package deal from Travel agencies which would include the Airfare from their respective destinations

In a typical 4 night /5 day Manali tour, mostly the following itinerary will take place:

â€¢First day, the Manali tour passengers are received at New Delhi airport and are transferred to Manali Hotel, which will be 570 km and 11 hours drive.

â€¢Second day, the Manali tour members are taken on a conducted local tour to visit Hadimba Devi Temple, Tibetan Monstery, Manu Temple and Vashisth Village â€¢Third day, again local conducted tour at Manali, when the visitors are taken to Kothi Gorge, Marhi, Rothang Pass and Solong Valley.

â€¢Fourth day, the Manali tour party leaves Manali, taking a 75 km drive to Manikaran, en route visiting Kullu, however the party returns to Kullu about 45 km for the  Kullu sight seeing tour and it reaches back Manali for the overnight stay.

â€¢Fifth day, the party travels back to Delhi to take flights for respective destinations.

Most of the Manali tour packages are offered with a full package price which would include â€¢Accommodation on twin sharing basis in standard or deluxe rooms according to the cost of the package â€¢Daily breakfast and Dinner â€¢Transportation in mountain roads with Non AC Cars , including all taxes, parking, toll and driver allowance â€¢All applicable hotel taxes and service taxes.

All Manali  tourism packages can  be booked online through the Websites of celebrated Travel agencies.
