Mumbai is one of the most charming cities in India. This article has been penned to throw light on the vibrancy of Mumbai, the financial capital of the country and the so-called city of dreams.

Mumbai is a lively, colorful and vibrant city known for its torrential rains, Bollywood, Indian stock market and pleasant climate. When one thinks of Mumbai what come to mind are the breezy shores of Marine Drive and a fast-paced city defined by an infectious culture. From captivating sightseeing spots to the alluring sea to some awe-inspiring man-made structures, Mumbai scores on every count and makes for a perfect holiday destination. Flights to Mumbai are available throughout the year. You can easily book Chennai to Mumbai flights or Mumbai flights from other Indian cities. Mumbai is also well connected by rail and road.

Mumbai has a cosmopolitan culture. Being the financial capital of India, Mumbai gives wings to the dreams of todayâ€™s youth. Thousands of youths from other smaller cities travel to Mumbai every year to get their dream job. That gives Mumbai a multi-ethnic look.

If there is one place to go in Mumbai, then that is Marine Drive. Marine Drive offers a cool and breezy hangout zone to friends and lovers. It is washed by the turquoise sea and is an experience in itself. Gateway of India, a colossal and grand monument, is another must-see attraction of the city. You must definitely take photographs of the monument and admire its architecture. Chowpatty Beach is another popular place where you can have a good time, sit, enjoy, gossip and binge on delicious snacks. When in Mumbai, donâ€™t forget to eat the local Bhelpuri!

Mumbai is also noted for some ancient caves like the Elephanta Caves, Kanheri Caves and the Mahakali Caves. These caves will surely impress the student of history. Among other attractions, the popular ones are the Colaba Causeway, Mahalaxmi Temple, Victoria Terminus, Hanging Gardens and Fashion Street. The Jehangir Art Gallery has an excellent collection and is also worth a visit. Essel World, an amusement park, is another popular destination to head to.

Mumbai is a metro city and very well connected. Mumbai flights can be boarded from all major cities. Flights to Mumbai are also available from international airports. If you are travelling from Chennai, you can board Chennai to Mumbai flights.

Mumbai has a pleasant climate which makes it a round-the-year destination. Still, it would be advisable to avoid the monsoon season since the city has a tendency to get flooded. The best time for a Mumbai trip is between October-March when the weather is dry and cool.

Mumbaiâ€™s local people are quite friendly and hospitable. Besides, if you are lucky, you may even spot some TV and film actors most of whom reside in the city. Nearby lays the Sanjay Gandhi National Park which is noted for leopards and other animals. You may pay a visit to the park if you have a fetish for wildlife. Flights to Mumbai are available round the year. You can also make an online booking of your Chennai to Mumbai flights. Advance bookings will definitely help you save a lot of money. Alternatively, you can buy a Mumbai tour package that includes good food, Mumbai sightseeing, Mumbai flights and stay in the best Mumbai hotels. So, fly away to Mumbai and have a memorable holiday!
