Article published on March 20th 2012 | Travel Tips

India offers numerous exotic locations and places to stay that you donâ€™t have to worry about having a perfect luxury holiday in India. There are several luxurious palace hotels that embody ultimate opulence and grandeur. Every tourist who visits India can experience true Indian hospitality and the age old Ayurvedic therapies which will rejuvenate you.

Luxury Resorts in India

There is no dearth for luxury in India and you can find several luxury resorts in India that combine traditional hospitality and modernity. All the luxury hotels and resorts offer service that is equivalent to international standards. Travel in luxury and indulge yourself in luxury at the wonderful Indian resorts which are located in serene environs close to nature

In North India there are many resorts where you can experience fine living and rich food. The Oberoi Vanyavillas is a luxury jungle as it is situated close to the Ranthambore National Park. Your luxury holiday in India will not be better than staying at the Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur. Built in the centre of Lake Pichola, this resort is a haven of luxury. This floating palace has all the modern amenities blended flawlessly with the old palace magnificence. The Amar Vilas Resort in Agra, Ananda in the Himalayas and the Pushkar Resorts in Rajasthan are few of the many in North India.

There are several luxury resorts in India in the South of the country too. Angsana Oasis Spa in Bangalore, Kumarakom Lake Resort in Kerala, Fishermanâ€™s Cove and Le Royal Meridian in Chennai are some of the popular luxury resorts.

Luxury Travel in India

Experience luxury travel in India by opting for one of the luxury tours offered by various tourist agencies. An ideal luxury travel would be the great India tour for 20 days. With luxury trains such as the Palace on Wheels, you can travel in the lap of luxury to visit the Taj Mahal in Agra and the beautiful Rajasthan.

Further, you can travel to Kerala to have a relaxed holiday strolling through the spice plantations or driving across the tea and coffee plantations in Munnar. Stay in luxurious resorts in the countryside and experience peace and tranquility which no money can buy.

Indian Luxury Holidays

You can have a luxury holiday in India if you select the right tourist agent to book your itinerary. India is a huge country that offers diverse cultures and experiences. You can enjoy breathtaking landscape and live in exotic resorts that offer everything in ultimate luxury.

Find a good travel agent to get the right luxury travel in India. To have a fascinating tour of India, take the Palace on Wheels or any other suitable luxury train that pampers you and gives you a royal experience. It covers a whole lot of destinations and you can stay in amazing 5-star luxury.
