Article published on April 11th 2012 | Travel Tips

Who has not heard about the famous Cook Islands? It is every castawayâ€™s dream to visit these isolated, exotic islands, located amidst the empty ocean in Western Europe Consulting a travel agent could be a good idea to book a great Hotels in Rarotonga. There are around 15 islands here, all of which offer interesting travel experiences, away from the mundane lifestyles that most people lead. Rarotonga is the most famous of Cook Islands. It is the largest of the lot, which blends weathered mountains, bone white beaches and impenetrable jungle perfectly.

In order to ensure a perfect stay at Rarotonga, one needs to book the best of Rarotonga Resorts, well ahead of time. It is a popular tourist destination and is frequented by castaways every now and then. It is not difficult to track a good Hotels Rarotonga. Rewinding back to history, we can see that Rarotonga has been considered to be the capital city of the famous Cook Islands since a long time. The existence of this exotic tourist destination has been touched by several eastern Polynesian legends. It is believed that Rarotonga was discovered by lo Tangaroa, who hailed from Marquesas Islands.,

One of the tourist attractions in Rarotonga is the Maire Nui Gardens. It is the botanical gardens in the island. It is well laid out and contains several flora and fauna samples of the islands. Also, the garden has a cafÃ© that sells coffee, pineapple cheesecake, and many other lip-smacking goodies.

Amongst the popular events that take place in Rarotonga, one that deserves special mention is scuba diving. The temperature of the sea water is warm, making scuba diving a pleasurable experience. The Dive Centre in Aroa beach offers a full service dive operation.

Snorkeling is another popular activity that the tourists indulge in when they arrive at Rarotonga. It is recommended that tourists opt for the sandy and coral lagoons for this purpose. The Aroa Marine Reserve is the most popular snorkeling spot. Muri beach is an ideal spot for snorkelers. It offers shallow water and is ideal for snorkeling beginners.

Tourists, who are keen on tramping, can spend some time in the several inland walking paths. The famous Raemaru track and the Needle and Cross-Island Walk-ways are mention-worthy here. As Rarotonga was a result of a massive volcano, there are lots of small peaks and hidden waterfalls. Tourists can consider tramping along such breath-taking natural spots.

Rarotonga is well known for its wide collection of fruits. Wild mangoes, avocadoes, guavas, passionfruits, oranges, starfruits, coconuts â€“ it has just about every fruit. Reef fish is among the many popular dishes in Rarotonga. Breadfruits, taro and sweet potatoes are used for making island fries. Tourists can expect to get Italian, Mexican and several seafood delicacies in Rarotonga.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/rarotonga-a-tourist-s-paradise.htm - Article Side

Go Cookislandsnz - About Author:
Go Cook Islands Offer a Hotel Rarotonga and a Accommodation Rarotonga, Rarotonga, a rarotonga villas,at the best prices, Go-Cook Islands work hard to bring the best options and packages for you. visit us to learn more!

Article Keywords:
Accommodation Rarotonga

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!