Article Side

Shop and Dine in Style in Cardiff by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 29th 2011 | Travel Tips

Cardiff is starting to draw a loyal band of followers with its excellent shopping opportunities and lively restaurant and bar scene. Cardiff has really come alive in recent years with the opening of a number of fantastic new shopping complexes throughout the city that have seen a large number of people flocking to the city to enjoy the lively atmosphere of these new shopping areas. Complimenting this vibrant daytime atmosphere of its shops, Cardiffâ€™s bar and restaurant scene offer some stylish places to enjoy a quiet drink with friends, or perhaps relax over a casual yet classy meal at a fine dining establishment. Shopping and eating in Cardiff has certainly become one of the cityâ€™s main attractions, and with the great range of Cardiff hotels, thereâ€™s no reason not to stay and make the most of it.

- Cardiff Market

The Cardiff Market is one of the most historical attractions of the city. The market has been in operation since the 18th century, and even today it is still going strong. These days, most people come to find some beautiful handicrafts, souvenirs, antiques and other unique items that are hard to find in mainstream shopping centres. This place is a real piece of Cardiff history and is not to be missed.

- Morgan Arcade

Morgan Arcade is one of Cardiffâ€™s attractive heritage shopping arcades. With stylish Edwardian architecture, Morgan Arcade is more than just a shopping experience; it is also a chance to taste the rich history of Cardiff. Some famous local shops, including Spillers Records, are located within this stunning shopping complex.

- Mermaid Quay

Mermaid Quay is a collection of shops and restaurants in the heart of Cardiff Bay. There are some unique specialty boutiques selling everything from mainstream fashion items to interesting and wonderful souvenirs and homemade handicrafts. This is a great place to come for some relaxed shopping on a weekend as the pace is remarkably slower and more relaxed than the busier shopping centres in the centre of town.

- Craft in the Bay

Craft in the Bay is a unique store that is sure to impress anyone interested in arts and crafts. The store is housed in a unique dockside building that features some classic Victorian architecture. With one of the most extensive ranges of products in the city, be sure to come here for all of your arts and crafts needs.

- Jamieâ€™s Italian

Jamieâ€™s Italian has become an institution in Cardiff. The popular British chef has developed a real following in the city, and his restaurant has won over a great number of people with its mouthwatering dishes and efficient service. Like all of Oliverâ€™s restaurants, Jamieâ€™s Italian makes sure that guests feel welcome and relaxed so that they can enjoy their meal to the greatest extent possible.

- CafÃ© Rouge

CafÃ© Rouge is popular with the local shopping crowd at lunchtimes and early afternoon after a busy day of shopping. The cafÃ© serves a great variety of sandwiches, snacks, salads, cakes and other tasty morsels. There is also an extensive drinks menu, making it a wonderful place to stop and unwind in the heart of the city.

- Cote Brasserie

Cote Brasserie is a charming establishment that attracts a classy clientele with its delicious snacks and meals. The coffee is also excellent, and many people choose to enjoy a casual afternoon tea with friends at Cote Brasserie. This place is also busy in the morning when locals come to get a strong coffee hit on their way to work. Cote Brasserie maintains a stylish yet relaxed atmosphere, making it a great choice for any occasion.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/shop-and-dine-in-style-in-cardiff.htm - Article Side

Lek Boonlert - About Author:
Lek Boonlert is an editor and content reviewer at DirectRooms and is responsible for all a Cardiff Hotels content.

Article Keywords:
cardiff hotels,cardiff hotel,cardiff things to do nightlife attractions destinations,explore cardiff city getting around,cardiff shopping markets malls centres,cardiff

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!