Student visa UK allows foreigners to come to the United Kingdom to study in a recognized school, college or university. You will need a student visa if you are not an EEA national, are stateless, hold a non-national travel document or hold a passport issued by an authority that is not recognized in the UK. There are different types of student visa UK which depend on your age, length and level of the course that you want to study.

The student visa includes the following:

â€¢ Tier 4 general is for adult students who want to enter UK for their post-16 education. It is for those aged 16 or 17 years and want to study a course at or above national qualification framework level 3 and need a sponsor.

â€¢ Tier 4 child is for children coming to the UK to be educated between the ages of 4 and 17 years old. Children between 4 and 15 must be educated at independent fee-paying schools. Tier 4 (child) cannot study at publicly funded schools and the school that they can attend must be publicly charged for international students.

â€¢ Student visitor is for adult who wish to undertake short course of study in the UK like English language course or work related training. This visa is valid for 6 months to 11 months. You cannot work and cannot extend the visa.

â€¢ Prospective student is for people who need to finalize their arrangements for their course of study in the UK.

â€¢ Child visitor is for children who want to study a short course in the UK and will not work while they study.

British visa application form is needed by everyone who wishes to enter UK and the form must be completed with English.
