Article published on November 29th 2011 | Travel Tips

The Museums

The small community of Barrow upon Humber is located in a historic region of England. Looking around the area, one can see the remnants of its history everywhere, from the ruins of old castles and abbeys to the beautiful picturesque landscape that has been created throughout the centuries by the people who lived and worked here. Museums in the region detail this spectacular history. Located just five miles from Barrow upon Humber, the Hull and East Riding museum in North Humberside offers brilliant natural history and archaeological displays. Visitors can stroll through an authentically recreated Iron Age village or visit a Roman bathhouse. The experience is both educational and exciting for visitors of all ages.

The Gardens and Parks

This region of Lincolnshire is one of great natural beauty and this is put on full display at the Elsham Hall Gardens and Country Park. Located just six miles outside of Barrow upon Humber, the stunning lakeside gardens offer a chance for couples and families to enjoy a stroll amongst nature in a peaceful environment. The park also offers an arboretum, an outdoor butterfly garden, an animal park and well-stocked carp and trout lakes. A trip here makes a great getaway for the day and an escape into nature.

Hotels in Barrow upon Humber

The village is within a short travelling distance of many other exciting destinations, including historic homes, museums, outdoor parks and the nearby Barton-upon-Humber rugby football club. The area offers something for everyone who wishes to escape for a unique British holiday in a quaint, yet vibrant, village. The hotels in Barrow upon Humber offer accommodation to please the tastes and budgets of all visitors and offer a perfect starting place for an exciting holiday.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/things-to-do-in-barrow-upon-humber.htm - Article Side

Lek Boonlert - About Author:
Lek Boonlert is an editor and content reviewer at DirectRooms and is responsible for all a Hotels in Barrow upon Humber content.

Article Keywords:
hotels in barrow upon humber,barrow upon humber hotel,barrow upon humber shopping and eating,barrow upon humber attractions destinations tours things to do explore getting around,barrow upon humber museums gardens parks

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!