The tier 1 visa is a point based system (PBS) and is directly replacing eight immigration categories from the previous system and has replaced them with a more streamlined four subdivisions. Tier visa application does not require any sponsors and is solely dependant on the applicant successfully meeting the pointâ€™s threshold of 100 points. Tier 1 visa is designed to attract the brightest and best individuals to the UK. You can apply for the visa from outside UK or within the UK. You are required to submit a whole range of documents to support and substantiate your application.

Tier 1 visa has four distinct categories which include the following:

â€¢ Tier 1 general highly skilled is for highly skilled individual without a job offer with sufficient points which are based on age, earnings, education and work experience in UK. This visa was closed to all new applicants and is now available to those extending their current HSMP.

â€¢ Tier 1 visa entrepreneur is for those setting up or taking over a business in the UK and being actively involved in the running of business.

â€¢ Tier 1 post study work visa allow those who have been in the UK on a student visa status the right to stay and work in the UK for a period of 2 years, if they have achieved a certain level of educational qualification. This replaced the previous international graduatesâ€™ schemes.

â€¢ Tier 1 investor visa is for those investing significant funds in the UK to live and work in the UK.

Hundreds of international students study in the UK each year which makes studying in the UK the number one choices for international students in the world. UK has world-class universities with an excellent higher education system and a rich experience for international students. In the day time is hard to have enough hours to manage everything UK has to offer outside of the classroom from world-class museums, art, cinema, theater, energetic politics and fantastic restaurants.

The UK has grown to become one of the top destinations to study around the world. With traditions of excellence dating back hundreds of years, high class institutions at every corner and much more flexibility than many other countries. The United Kingdom has much to offer international students than other English speaking countries cannot offer.

The degrees and qualifications from UK higher education institutions are known all around the world as high quality and world class. The standard of excellence is set by some of the elder universities with recognizable names, for example oxford and Cambridge, but the tradition carries through to many of the universities and colleges throughout the UK. When looking to study in UK, this can be a great selling point in your interest
