Article published on February 29th 2012 | Travel Tips

If youâ€™re a beach lover, Goa is a good choice to you. But if youâ€™re a foodie too and wish to savor a variety of detectable cuisines, Goa is truly a place to be. From shoreline shacks to riverside restaurants, and tree-house table to candlelit cliff-top dining, you would have an array of dining options in Goa to get your finger greasy and satiate your food appetency.  Choose any of the below detailed restaurants, and enjoy Goa meals in style. The menu at all these restaurants is wonderfully strategically designed to provide the guests with the best dining experience.

Jamies Place, Baga Beach

â€˜Great Place, nice staff, delicious food and plentiful varietiesâ€™, these are some words closely associated with Jamies Place restaurant in Goa. Jamies proves that good things come in small packages. Atmosphere is very romantic and quality of service is first class. Hoards of honeymooners come here to enjoy candle light dinner. Buffalo wings, parma-ham & melon, prawns and garlic pasta are some of highlighted dishes at the restaurant. Try it, you wonâ€™t regret.

VJâ€™s Shacks

VJâ€™s Shacks is an excellent dining avenue nestled at Candolim Beach. Itâ€™s a great host with fantast cuisines and friendly staffs that will make you feel so welcome.  Along with well-adjusted dining tables, the restaurant houses clean toilets & showers and excellent sun-bed areas. No matter you wish to make arrangement for b-day and wedding anniversary party or just want to have a family dinner during your holiday in Goa, VJâ€™s Shacks is just a perfect answer.

Nicks Place

The restaurant is located near Marina Dourando in Arpora, and is a much-preferred option for breakfast and lunch. This spotless venue offers an excellent choice of food â€“ good selection of both English and Continental, with customer service being second to none in Goa. Try out Roast Dinner and Puddings, and itâ€™s sure you will want more. Surrounding environment is quite pleasant, and pop quiz on Tuesday Night is simply awesome. The best in all, prices are reasonable.

Le Jardin, Calangute

The elegance of Le Jardin restaurant is like an added feather in the crown of bustling neon lit brightness of Calangute. The lovely garden setting here is coupled with delicious local cuisines making it an excellent choice for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Friendly staff and well spaced layout are the added attractions to the guests. Favorite here include Norwegian Salmon with caramelized onions on bruscetta, Beef Steak and mushroom & cheese sauce. Try our Prawn in a white wine, pesto sauce or the Australian Savignon Blanc, and you get a nice taste to cherish for long. Definitely, the restaurant is worth against your time and money.

Kennieâ€™s A Fusion Affair

Undoubtedly, Northern Goa has a wealth of restraints, but the Kennieâ€™s at Anjuna stands unique with its splendid quality of food and an alluring hospitability. Picturesque settings surround the restaurant making it an ideal selection for meal with serenity.  However, many modern means of entertainment are also placed to give the guests a good feel during dining. Come here for a dinner, and you will simply love to revisit.
