Endowed with pure & pristine environment, lofty Himalayan peaks, ancient temples and warm-friendly people, Himachal is a purified heaven for travelers. Nestled in arms of Himalaya, the mountainous state has a lot in store for tourists seeking for scenic beauty, exotic cultures and fun & frolic. Simply, holiday in Himachal is a memorable experience that rejuvenates the mind, body and soul.

The beautiful state Himachal Pradesh belongs to North India, and is home to a vast and valuable natural treasure. Itâ€™s bordered by Jammu & Kashmir on the north, Punjab on the west and south-west and Haryana and Utter Pradesh on the south. The state shares boundary with Uttarakhand on the south east. Almost entire Himachal is pristine and picturesque, and thatâ€™s why it boasts a number of tourist destinations thronged by thousands of travelers annually. About 70 Lakh people, pertaining to multitude cultures, reside in this small but incredibly beautiful state.

Himachal Pradesh offers an electric mix of old and new. Age-old temples & pagodas, splendid colonial buildings, several traditional fairs and fests reflect its rich traditions and history. Today, major cities and hill resorts in Himachal boast inviting modern amenities, and give the visitors and the locals alike an exotic feel with maximum possible comforts. But, one is common in both past and present and thatâ€™s the pristine natural beauty that state features in abundance. Additionally, salubrious weather year-round and enticing festive atmosphere add more delights to oneâ€™s trip to Himachal Pradesh.

Himachal Pradesh is well-renowned for its hill stations and green valleys. Shimla is the capital of the state, and one of its prettiest hill stations. This well-planned town has a magical charm with magnificent natural attractions and lovely colonial edifices. A Shimla tour also gives you a handful of adventure sports to savor. Dharmshala is the stateâ€™s religious capital, being home to many temples, religious sites and Tibetan monasteries. Gentle slopes dotted with pine trees, orchards and tea plantations are simply awesome in this lovely hill town. Peace, serenity and solace in Manali make it a favorite haunt for romantic couples. Weather is just awesome at this scenic heaven, and thatâ€™s why demand for Manali tour packages turns very high during summer. Apart from that, Kullu, Chamba and Kangra Valley are other premium tourist spots being luxuriant, green and delightful with various adventure sports to enjoy.

Today, numerous agencies, both governmental and privately owned, help travelers to plan Himachal tour properly. Various modern facilities have been established at/around almost all tourist destinations to attract more and more travelers. Regular air services from Delhi to Himachal are provided to boost tourism in the state. Now deals for Himachal tour including Shimla tour packages, hotels in Manali and Dharmshala packages are available online. Considering your needs and budget, you can get the most suited one.
