Article published on December 16th 2011 | Travel Tips

Lilongwe is the capital city of Malawi and is situated by Lilongwe River. Back in its past, it used to be a tiny fishing village and then grew into a civic city. For quite some time, Lilongwe remained the second largest city of Malawi behind Blantyre but has grown considerably and became the largest city of the country in 2008. Lilongwe is a largely green city where even the buildings in the city center are divided by green patches in the least. Trees and grassy lands are found all throughout the city. Lilongwe is a lot better than many other African countries when it comes to traffic and communications and city planning.

Exploring the city can be a lot of fun for travelers. Lilongwe has been separated into three parts with Old Town and the New Town divided by Lilongwe Nature Sanctuary. Like everywhere else in Africa, a trip to Lilongwe will also bring to sight, much in regards to flora and fauna to explore and Lilongwe Nature Sanctuary is a good place. Lilongwe would be a good deal as they will leave the travelers with enough money to spend getting around the city. However, once cheap flights to Lilongwe are gotten, checking that African touch is important too. Working in the city as a volunteer for animals is also a good idea. Gradually, the city is becoming more popular amongst tourists and hence Cheap Flights to Lilongweare being increasingly promoted by tour operators. Traveling to the city is thus, easy and quite exciting.

Cheap flights to Lilongwe can be found through many tour operators and are handled here by Kamuzu International Airport.

All flights are reaching at the famous Kamuzu International airport which is the major gateway in Lilongwe. All flights are operated by the worldwide famed Airlines which are offering quite comfortable journey. Many of the air carriers are carrying daily flights to Lilongwe from international destinations.The direct non stop flights always save your time and the connecting flights save your money. Numerous tour operators are offering Flights to Lilongweand with little research tourists can find them out. Gradually, the city is becoming more popular amongst tourists and hence cheap flights to Lilongwe are being increasingly promoted by tour operators. Traveling to the city is thus, easy and quite exciting.

All flights are reaching at the famous Kamuzu International airport which is the major gateway in Lilongwe. All flights are operated by the globally famed Airlines which are offering quite comfortable journey. Many of the air carriers are carrying daily flights to Lilongwe from international destinations. Flights are either operating directly or indirectly to this fabulous place. The direct non stop flights always save your time and the connecting flights save your money.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/trip-to-lilongwe.htm - Article Side

Iffatali - About Author:
a Cheap Flights to Lilongwe

a Cheap Flights to johannesburg

Article Keywords:
Cheap Flights to Lilongwe

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!