Europe is a vast continent having wonderful destinations to please the Tourists with best of touring and enjoying their holidays. Before taking up an Europe tour packages, it is wise to know the various destinations that a tourist should visit while one is on Europe tourism.

Europe tour packages mostly cover London, Paris, Switzerland and Germany to which places popular tour packages are constructed. But, there are other interesting places in Europe which a history loving tourist would love to visit. These places include the following destinations:

â€¢Bulgaria is a place that gives wonderful feeling to one who travels through its mountainous ranges and it is culture rich giving scope for one to visit the medieval tsarsâ€™ capital Veliko Tamovo, with its hilltop fortress. Rose valley is another interesting spot here where Europeâ€™s rose oil is produced in plenty.

â€¢Turkey is a place where one can see the unadulterated Italian Culture and sophistications that had come from Arabia, apart from its beaches, bars and banana boats.

â€¢Lithuania is a place where one can witness authentic items depicting European history, enriched with 60 miles long white sandy beach, the fifth city of which is Siauliai having with it the 20s and 30s style of architecture.

â€¢Poland is a place with its capital Warsaw holding show piece mix of left over soviet glass towers and world-class bars, dispensing the travelersâ€™ thirst for highly superior vodka varieties.

â€¢Croatia is a place composed of 1000 islands, with beautiful coastlines, tranquil mountains and wonderful national parks, with ancient Roman mountains nearby.

Travel agencies offer Europe tour packages which cover the above destinations.

Most of the Europe tourism package prices generally include the following:

â€¢To and fro airfare

â€¢Airport taxes

â€¢Visa expenses in the intermediary countries

â€¢Travel insurance for the entire tour period

â€¢Hotel accommodation

These Europe Tour packages will cover bed and breakfast at every station, however lunch and dinner expenses may have to be borne by the tourists. In many packages, they exclude the local tour expenses. The same way, the tour price may not include entrance fees required for exhibitions, boat rides, cable car charges or fees to be remitted at the skating rinks or skiing fields.

Tourists can make their own Europe travel, by taking flight tickets directly to each of the European cities and book their hotel accommodations apart from purchasing local tour packages. But, it is always good to go in for Europe Tour packages offered by travel advisers, since they would take care of all the nuances of travel arrangements.
