India is a country famous for its diversity and a lot of other things. Some of the things that mark the uniqueness of the country are the variety of food, friendly people, beautiful locations, great temples and worship places. Another quality that attracts tourists to the country are the well connected the Indian railways. Though almost every place around the globe has a railway network, the Indian railways still are preferred by most tourists coming here. Indian railways provide the best opportunity for foreign tourists to interact with the local inmates which themselves are as diverse as the country itself. Also, the dependence of the country on these trains is remarkable.

Railway travels is an option to most and many people in India leading to more than 20 billion boarders every day. For some it is a great way to go to destination cities to enjoy and travel with their families. It proves to be a good option as it has a reasonable price with proper services and a few benefits. For a lot others also, like for those travelling due to business or any personal reason, trains are the preferred options.

Since there are an increasing number of people boarding the Indian railways each day and an increasing number of foreign tourists, the government has improved the quality of services. The improved services like cleaner and hygienic washrooms, cleaner railway stations, blankets for the night, food services etc. have led to further improvement of the reputation of Indian railways.

The booking of the railway tickets used to be a major turn off before online reservation services like irtc train booking emerged. One had to go to the railway stations and stand in a long queue in order to get the tickets booked. Now, Irtc train booking and some prominent others help people from wasting their time and getting the reservation of the tickets online. Various websites of travel and tourism offer these services along with other required information about the train like Bhubaneswar Duronto and their timings, routes, departure, arrival etc. These sites also tell about the availability of tickets in the particular train.

One can book according to its need as he or she gets to choose from AC 2 tier, AC 3 tier, chair car, sleeper, first class etc. keeping in mind the different charges for different compartments. Comfort and experience both can be enjoyed by a person on their travels via Indian railways.
