Article published on December 14th 2011 | Travel Tips

Working holiday Australia allows those with agreements with Australia to work for a short period to finance their trip to the country that granted them the visa. Most working holiday Australia is organized on the basis of mutual relations between the countries. The main purpose is to encourage tourism and culture exchange between the different countries involved. This visa allows you to work in Australia for 6 months for the same employer and the same conditions as Australian citizen.

Working holiday offers sun, adventure, an awesome natural environment and friendly people. This is the best place you can experience and interact with such unique natural attractions. Western Australia offers lots of great jobs, fantastic travel opportunities to international sporting challenges. While you are working your daily costs are much lower than when you are traveling. Accommodation is usually cheaper when you are staying in one place for a certain period of time.

Citizens from these countries can participate in working holiday program which include: united kingdom, united states, Canada, the Netherlands, Japan, republic of Ireland, republic of Korea, Malta, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Hong Kong, Finland, the republic of Cyrus, France, Italy, Belgium and Taiwan

Australian student visa is granted to students who wish to undertake a registered course on a full-time basis offered by an Australian education provider who is registered with the Australian government to offer course to overseas student. Your student visa specifies an expected duration in which you will study in Australia and you must finish your studies within this duration. You can apply to extend your student visa if you have not completed your studies within the expected duration. Australian student visa allows you to work up to 20 hours a week during term time and unlimited during holidays, but you cannot begin working until your course has started.

Generally your visa will also cover you for multiple entries into Australia during study course. Your spouse and dependant children may accompany you into Australia by applying for the same visa. To apply for a student visa you must have been accepted in a full time course, you will need separate healthcare cover, but you do not get access to Australia subsidized student health cover. You will need to have a good character and good English language skills. You need to show your good attendance in your course In order to sustain your status and sufficient funds to support your self during the stay and for tuition in Australia.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/working-holiday-australia-and-australian-student-visa.htm - Article Side

Francis - About Author:
Francis is a professional SEM/SEO,link builder and article writer who writes on different niches.a
http://globalvisas.net.au/countries/

Article Keywords:
Australian student visa, working holiday Australia

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!