Article published on January 17th 2012 | Vacations

Sanibel Island is a very beautiful place to live or spend a vacation. It is located in Florida very near to the Fort Myers. The life at this fort is very fast but one you will cross over to the beach, it is very calm and quite with lush green scenery. These seemingly vast islands consist of a lot public parks and are have somewhat different environment. Beaches have their own specialties. People mostly enjoy the sun sets and rises the most. Then the sandy beaches provide a very good place for sun baths and spending some leisure time. The Sanibel Islands consist of these all.

Unique Places On and Around the Beach

These beaches show difference in the type of environment but a number of commonalties. These have some common type of rest rooms which charge $2 per hour and includes the parking as well. Bowmanâ€™s beach is busier but has a lot of facilities like rest rooms, outside showers and changing rooms.

There are Sanibel vacation rentals which provide great places to spend vacations and enjoy the life on the beach. Though overall beach life is the same but there are certain things that make this beach somewhat different. The important places to visit are:

Ding Darling National Wildlife Preserve

This covers the huge area and is famous all over the world for the presence of huge number migratory birds throughout the year. For Instance, Pelicans visit this place only during winters. There are a few types of birds which live there throughout the year like Roseate Spoonbills. There are number of pamphlet guides which give more information about the place.

Biking and other sports activities

The Sanibel has created an image of its own in biking related activities. There are specially designed lanes for it. A number of people rent their bikes which are available for all ages. Canoeing and Kayaking are other two important activities which are cherished here. Apart from these there are a number of places for fishing in Sanibel.

Shell Collection activities

The East-western side is unique for the shelling activities. The position of the beach is such that the shells are mostly washed over there. The shell museum of Bailey â€“ Matthews, is located there and is dedicated to the conservation of shells and also supports research on these.

Special Outings

In addition to the normal beach places, there are a number of additional places where people can enjoy the nature at its best. The lush green surroundings are an integral part of this place. The visits to â€œUsseppa Islandâ€• and â€œcabbage keyâ€• are worth going for.

How to make a great family vacation on Sanibel

The most important thing to spend a great vacation with the family is to find a perfect place to reside or live. There are a number of Sanibel beach rentals which provide good options. You can hire these for varied period of time; from a few days to months. Living on the beach is a great experience in itself. Having a place from where you can have a clearer look of the vast sea, is what your family should love.

Care needs to be taken if there are little children because they canâ€™t be expected to travel much and yes, the availability of the good food should be ensured apart from a good and spacious residence. All these and a visit to the above places will surely make your day and make the visit to Sanibel to be cherished ever.
