Agra- the city of Heavenly Wonder

by Sonutch

Article published on November 28th 2011 | Vacations

Are you waiting for the perfect opportunity to see the undying beauty of Taj Mahal? If it so, gear up for a Vacations India to see the wonder of the world today!!

Taj Mahal is one of the famous Seven Wonders of the World whose beauty, grandeur and astonishing look took entire India into the limelight of the world. Thousands of tourists and visitors from around the globe usually visit to the Taj Mahal and further sights in Agra.

India is a country of diverse cultures where people having different cultural backgrounds are found which had resulted India to become one of the best India destinations sought by people. India has been rich in cultures that can be proven by various monuments, forts and Palaces built in different time periods which are reflected on these historical sites. However, one can find Taj Mahal every time on the top of the lists of beauties available in India.

The major attraction, grandeur and beauty of the Taj Mahal basically lie in the architectural designs that have been shaped up with marble stones which are so eye-catching that it is very hard to ignore. This monument is a symbol of true and eternal love; there is an interesting love story attached with the gravestone; it was constructed by Ustad Ahmad Lahauri, the architect on an order of Shah Jahan. Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan who dearly in love with his beloved wife Mumtaz Mahal had built Taj Mahal signifying the undying love that turned into a tomb of amazing wonder to behold.

Taj Mahal Tours India and further sights in Agra avail tourists to taste artistic beauty and knowledge of the people in the pasts. It is said that before death, Shah Jahan was promised by his beauty queen Mumtaz saying he should build a Mahal which must be unique and full of pleasant wonders and be the only one in the world so that their love can be eternally felt by people not only of that time but from generation to generation to come. The historical facts of this monument are usually available in the various books stalled in a close vicinity of Taj Mahal. Visiting during full moon one can have the awesome sight of the Taj Mahal which glows like a twinkling star in the sky. Every ray of moonlight falling over it is reflected on the water giving an unforgettable glimpse to all.

Viewers also dip into the infinite wonders of the monument; cool breeze, reflection of architectural designs shining more vividly make the environment full of romances which sometimes, bring back past memories making beholders bit nostalgic.

Taj Mahal and further sights in Agra include of few famous historical sites in the form of Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri where hundreds of people throng there on daily basis. These two signify the pride and glory India achieved during the medieval period with the architectural marvels they are equipped with. All those buildings have been structured in a style blended with both Indo-Islamic and Persian. The main characteristics features of Fatehpur Sikri are the Buland Darwaza, famously known as high door which is a victory symbol of Akbar when he had defeated the King of Khandesh in Gujarat.

The presence of various stars categorized hotels and resorts ensured Taj Mahal and further sights in Agra more enriching and full of pleasant surprises where hundreds of tourists make their presence.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/agra-the-city-of-heavenly-wonder.htm - Article Side

Sonutch - About Author:
My a Vacations India provides service a India Vacations tours and travel. Get the best Offer Vacations services and on a Vacation Packages to India .

Article Keywords:
My Vacations India- we are looking for offering tours to India Vacations in India provide services, India Vacations, Vacations India, Vacations to India, Vacations in India, Vacations of India, India Vacation.

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!