Bali is one of the famous Indonesian islands located in the westernmost end of the Lesser Sunda Islands lying between Java to the west and Lombok to the east. Due to its exotic, real and natural look, itâ€™s one of the most preferred destinations for beach lovers. Itâ€™s one of the largest tourist destinations in the country which is famous for its highly developed arts, include painting, sculpture, metalworking, leather, modern & traditional dance and music. Bali has been a premiere tourist place for years across the globe. Culture as well as nature is considered as two most major components of Indonesian tourism.

In Bali, natural heritage has unique combinations of tropical climate, vast archipelago of numerous islands (17,508 approx.) as well as the third largest shoreline in the world (54,716 km) after European and Canada. The beaches in Bali have very exotic and popular scenic destinations such as various national parks in Sumatra along with Mount Rinjani, Bunaken in Lombak. Itâ€™s the worldsâ€™ most populous and largest country situated only on islands. These natural and real attractions are completed by a rich cultural heritage which reflects ethnic diversity and dynamic history of Indonesia. Indonesian government especially Ministry of Culture and Tourism is responsible for tourism activities and administration. They largely emphasize on tropical destinations with blue sky, white sand beaches and cultural attractions.

There are various beach hotels and resorts in Bali and their numbers are increasing continuously. The numbers of tourists are increasing year wise. Thatâ€™s the main reason for the development of beach hotels and resorts there. Everyone can afford beach hotel in Bali according to their specific needs and requirements within their financial budget.
