Best North India Hill Stations Tours by Sandeep Pandey

Article published on May 24th 2012 | Vacations

The hill stations of North India are very popular among the travellers all across the globe and provide them a great respite from the intolerable summers of plains. During the summers in India most of the schools get closed after hectic examinations and children are ready to move to some exciting places to recharge themselves with new energies. Summer vacation is the right time to enjoy the beauty of these scenic hill resorts. Each hill station has its own charm, a local flavor, Music, folk dance, festivals that surely will grab the attention of its visitors and provides them an enthralling experience. According a historical record around 50 to 80 hill stations of India were established during the British regime with the intension of using them as their summer capitals while the rest them had been the contribution of various dynasties and rulers that had ruled this country. Now a day these hilly spots are the perfect hubs for leisure activities, a soul refreshing escapades, exciting outdoor thrilling activities etc. Tour to these hill stations of North India serves dual purposes for its visitors and provided them an opportunity to enjoy adventure tourism and a peaceful romantic holiday. Some of the popular of North Indian hill resorts where the guests can enjoy some wonderful moments of their lives are:-

Nainital:- Nainital an awe-inspiring hill retreat is situated at an elevation of 1,938 meters above the sea level in Uttrakhand state. It is renowned for its various lakes and serene ambience that it provides to its guests. Naini, Khurpatal, Bhimtal, Naukuchiatal and Sattal are some of the famous lakes of Nainital. It is one of the 64 Shakti Peethas in India where devotees throng in large numbers through out the year. Other attractions of this scenic hill stations include Naina Peak, Nania Devi Temple, Tiffin top, Dorothy seat etc.

Shimla:-Nestled in the foot hills of Majestic Himalayas, Shimla sounds soothing. Located at an altitude of 2,196 meters above the sea level this beautiful colonial town is surrounded by oak, cedar and thick rhododendron forests was once the summer capital during the British regime. It is one of the most visited holiday destination for families and honeymooners. The major attractions of this capital city of Himachal Pradesh, is Jakhoo Temple, Mall Road, Tara Devi Temple, St. Michaelâ€™s Church etc.

Mount Abu:- Located on the Southern tip of the Aravali Ranges, Mount Abu is no less than an oasis in barren Rajasthan. It is the highest point between the Nilgiris in the South and Himalayas to the North, the hill station is renowned for its majestically beautiful Dilwara Jain temples, Sunset Pint, Honeymoon Point, Adhar Devi Temple etc.

Manali:- The famous hill station of Himachal Pradesh, Manali is a hotbed for adventurers seekers. Situated at an elevation of 2,050 meters above the sea level, it offer various exciting vistas to enjoy trekking, mountaineering, mountain biking and lots more fun-filled exciting adventurous activities. The hill station offers its sightseers the wonderful glimpses of Hadimba Temple, Manu Temple, Arjun Gufa along with various Buddhist monasteries that make it a major tourist attraction in the world.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/best-north-india-hill-stations-tours.htm - Article Side

Sandeep Pandey - About Author:
All the hill stations of North India are a rich combination of diversifying cultures that mesmerizes millions of eyes every year.So you come and enjoy the a Hill Stations of India and a North India Tours. All the hill stations of North India are a rich combination of diversifying cultures that mesmerizes millions of eyes every year.So you come and enjoy the Hill Stations of India and North India Tours.

Article Keywords:
Hill Stations of India , North India Tours , North India Hill Stations Tour,Hill Stations Packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!