Article published on August 4th 2012 | Vacations

Mumbai, the word brings with it the image of colorful and fancy Bollywood scenes and stars. Mumbai is also one of the closest cities to the Arabian Sea port, making it one of the most important business centers in India. With so much activity going around throughout the year it is essential that good hotel facility back up the requirement of people visiting the city for either tour or business purpose. Finding a good hotel in Mumbai may not be an impossible task but it is not easy at the same time. One has to keep into consideration the facts like budget and location of the hotel before booking the rooms.

Some of the well-known and internationally acclaimed hotels in Mumbai include:

Oberoi

Oberoi Mumbai has recently won the best hotels in Mumbai award based on the feedbacks given by the residents during the past one year. Oberoi hotel is located in the posh region of Nariman point making it a perfect visiting place for majority of high profile citizens of Mumbai. The hotel boasts of facilities like international standard bar/lounge, business center, fitness zone, swimming pool, wheel chair facility and also quality food cooked by best chefs in India.

Taj Mahal Palace

One can say without any qualms that Taj Mahal Palace is one of the first luxury hotels set up in Mumbai. The hotel or should we say palace was the first site to set up a fully licensed bar in the city. Taj Mahal Place has a rich history of more than hundred years and having the privilege of service various eminent personalities like Kings and foreign dignitaries from across the globe. Most of the business travelers prefer to stay at Taj Mahal Palace because of it sheer size and splendor. There is story behind every pillar used in constructing this marvelous piece of monument. There are 560 rooms including 44 suites which have all the modern day facilities embedded in them, hence making the stay most comfortable and memorable.

Trident

Trident, Bandra Kurla is situated at the hub of major business and financial district of northern Mumbai. The hotel is in close proximity to various financial institution as well as IT companies making it the social heart hub. The hotel has 435 rooms which are fully furnished and equipped with facilities like bar/lounge, swimming pool, internet facility, room service, business conference room, fitness center, gaming zone, wheel chair access and many more.

To enjoy a stress free visit to Mumbai one can book the rooms and suites well in advance in these prestigious Budget Hotels in Mumbai using internet facilities or by simply calling the hotel reception. The hotel receptions give detailed information regarding the rooms which are available and also the cost which may once have to part away with to stay at the premises. The costs may be on the higher sides for middle class families but the facilities provided justify the prices. Most of these luxury hotels are usually booked well in advance by rich and famous personalities.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/finding-best-hotels-in-mumbai.htm - Article Side

Travel Accurate - About Author:
A Trip to The National Financial commitment Combined with Real estate in one of Mumbai Hotels is an Atypical Treat. In All Hotels at very inexpensive costs, it is one of the best a Hotels in Mumbai and a Budget Hotels in Mumbai that provide a Variety of Solutions to its Visitors.

Article Keywords:
Hotels in Mumbai,Budget Hotels in Mumbai

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!