Goa Holiday with Beaches, Churches and Cuisines

by Tom Thoomas

Article published on May 22nd 2012 | Vacations

Goa is one among the top destinations for beach holiday and historical sightseeing. It is a beautiful coastal state situated in the south west of India. The state has a unique atmosphere where you can freely life in your own style, celebrate holiday in any mode with any restriction.

Today, Goa has become an international holiday hot spot sought after by hundreds and thousands of tourists. It has become the common ground for millions of beach lovers and fun seekers of the world. Most of the attractions of tourist in this place are the beaches. The beaches in particular, have captured the attention international tourist for its liberated style laid back on the beaches where parties and nightlife are legal. These nightlife and party services of the beaches of the state have gained the interest and attention of many of the western people.

There are lots of beaches but each of them different in character some are for those fun seekers, others for family enjoyment and there are also beaches for those who are wishing to be aloof and enjoy the peace and serenity. However, it has something special for everyone, you can enjoy the rich cuisines, rich culture, attraction sites and other exciting activities whether you go Anjuna beach or Agonda beach and even for those who love the beaches like Dona Paula and other picturesque beach sites.

Anjuna is mostly sought after by youngsters and others looking for fun with nightlife, parties, liberty enjoyment etc. Agonda also favors such activities but are less popular in such terms compared to Anjuna and it goes to the delight for flea market and water sports. The beaches for those lonely seekers may be those who broken hearted persons or those who are looking forward to pamper their health by giving their mind rest amidst the peaceful and tranquil sites and it is also quite favorable area for loverâ€™s dating. And so the beaches of Goa are beyond imagination and offers beyond expectations for everyone.

Some people must be wondering about the party life and nightlife excitement world which are quite odd for the Indian culture. It might be somewhat peculiar for some tourist being the state quite different from those of the other states of the country. But behind them are told by the images of the great churches and the buildings found inside the state. Goa was once ruled by many of the western rulers and thus their culture and tradition, lifestyle came to influence with that of the India which makes place beautiful and unique.

Take up Goa Tours to satisfy your curiosity it will carry you the ancient world of Portuguese, Dutch and British. The great churches of the Se Cathedral, Basilica of Bom Jesus are incredibly works of the great Portuguese art. Today it had been place among the worldâ€™s most astonishing churches of the world. Similarly, there are lots of such amazing traces of the historical past.

Explore them all and experience the most delightful holiday getaway with Goa Holiday Packages for unlimited ultimate thrill and excitement found in the state.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/goa-holiday-with-beaches-churches-and-cuisines.htm - Article Side

Tom Thoomas - About Author:
Tom c Thomas is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel and Tourism related topics. He has authored many books on tour guide for a Goa Trip and a Goa Vacation.

Article Keywords:
Goa Tours, Goa Holiday Packages, Goa Trip ,Goa Vacation

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!