What can you do on your trip to Mesquite, Nevada? The grownups can spend a day golfing at Falcon Ridge golf course, or one of the other 4 world class courses, while the younger members of the family can visit the club house or take a swim in the hotel pool. If your younger members aren't enthusiastic about swimming, then perhaps they'd like a few games of bowling at the Virgin River Bowling center.

Perhaps they would like to take a tour of the Lost City Museum or check out the Mesquite Fine Arts Center and Gallery. Very close to Lake Mead, the Lost City Museum is opened Thursday through Sunday, and has many different artifacts that were excavated from the American Indian tribe of the Anasazi. There is also art exhibitions in the museum occasionally. You will find six different museums that you can visit in Nevada. There is just no end to the things a family can do in Mesquite. There're able to check out all the history of the area.

While Dad has gone out golfing at the Falcon Ridge course, the wife and children can go to the Mesquite Fine Arts and Gallery. It is possible to take art classes there and learn to paint as well as take a pottery class. If you'd like to see just how the professionals do their projects, you can check out the gallery to see the way the masters achieved it.

There is also a museum called the Virgin Valley Museum. At this museum you will be able to discover what the first slot machine that had been brought to the Nevada valley looked like. You'll see what the first whiskey still in the area looked like, exactly what the early style televisions looked like along with the first radios. Tours are offered to assist you through the museum.

Your family could also do a bit of souvenir shopping. There are several shops that they can take a look at close to the hotels and in the museums. There is always something fun to look at and something unique to buy in the various souvenir stores. There are also some interesting souvenirs in the Falcon Ridge golf course club house.

Did you know that you can find 9 National Parks in just a day's drive in Mesquite, Nevada? You can go watch sky divers dive in the air, go bumper car riding, have fun bowling, and check out the arcade. There is simply plenty of things you can do around Mesquite.

If you can pry Dad away from the Falcon Ridge golf course, you can actually take sky diving lessons as a family. You can visit the Valley of Fire state park, and you'll need to allow hours of recreation and adventure for this trip. If you choose to go to one or more of the state parks in Nevada, make sure you bring your digital camera along with you.

With 6 great golf courses to choose from, any golfer would dream of living in Mesquite. Your family would like it also. With all of the State and National Parks to see along with the rest of the activities that are offered, it would take a lifetime to experience it all.
