Kerala is most often touted as the Godâ€™s own land. The comparison is not just hypothetical, the green lush all over the place and the scenic mountain ranges makes one believe that if there could be a place on earth where Godâ€™s would like to reside then that place has to be Kerala. The backwaters of Kerala are famous not only in India but throughout the globe. Many tourists who come to visit India and get a chance to visit south India make it a point it visit Kerala. Munnar in Kerala is considered as the most romantic honeymoon destination place in India.

The resorts and Hotels in Kerala are also of top international quality making the stay comfortable as well as relaxing. The home stay in Kerala makes one feel at ease and the environment makes one believe that they are at home enjoying a well-earned vacation. The food and the level of hospitality of people in Kerala are also commendable. The fact that most of the people can converse in English is but a relief for the travelers from across other states and countries, this makes communication easier as well as effective.

Hotel in Kerala can be booked via online services from various travel websites such as trip advisor or make my trip.com. The quality of hotels is assured by these reputed websites and thus makes travelers much more relaxed. The prices offered over these sites are also comparatively cheaper due the fact that these websites have business connection with these hotels. One precaution though which should be taken is to make sure that the room is clean and tidy. This can be crosschecked from the reviews written about those hotels by previous tourists and travelers.

Most of the Kerala Hotels provides the residents with facilities like A/C rooms, coffee makers, nice ambience, good food, international standard bars/lounges, swimming pool, business conference rooms and other services like car rental, currency exchange and laundry.

The travel desks at the hotel reception can arrange for tour packages at very nominal prices and these tours guarantee that none of the best places are missed by the rookie visitor. When in Kerala one should also take time off to visit the wildlife sanctuary as it is one of the best in whole of India.

While booking a car for rent via the hotel authoritiesâ€™ one should check the automobile first before committing oneself, it may sometime happen that the vehicle is broke and the traveler is blamed for the malfunctioning of the vehicle.
