Article Side

Hill Station Tour to Kasauli

by Sandeep Pandey

Article published on July 16th 2012 | Vacations

The small quite and one of the most enchanting hilly town of the state is situated in the laps of majestic Himalayas at an elevation of 1,972 meters above the sea level. The town was established by Britishers and its colonial ambience is still reinforced in the form of quite cobbled streets, amazing and artistic bungalows with flower front gardens and churches. The hill station tour to Kasauli caters the needs of its discrete travelers and offers them great solace and tranquility to enjoy their vacations with their families and friends. It is no less than a haven for nature lovers, bird watchers and honeymooners who immersed in the beauty of this town and feel unperturbed and revitalized.

One of the best ways of capturing the beauty of this scenic hilly town is walking on foot. Other wise on can also avail tongas, taxis, rent motorbikes or board the buses to enjoy the exquisiteness of the place and its surroundings. The best time to enjoy Kasauli tours is between April and November. A quite retreat from the maddening chaos of the busy city life the hilly town of Kasauli has some wonderful options for sightseeing. Monkey Point is the highest point in the region that offers amazing views of distant plains of Chandigarh and the river Sutlej. A small temple on the hilltop dedicated to Lord Hanuman is must visit sight. Besides this there are some spectacular churches like Baptist Church and Neo gothic Church that are must visit places of this hill station. Donâ€™t forget to pay a visit to Krishna Bhavan Mandir, a temple built in 1926 with architecture like European churches. Experience the walks around Lower Mall, Upper Mall and Main Bazar that offers the most amazing sunrise and sunsets. The main bazaar offers a stupendous shopping experience to its visitors in the glowing tiny bulbs. From here the guests can buy fresh fruit jams, pick the Tibetan artifacts made up of wood and various other show pieces.

Kasauli hill station tours is a blessing for adventure freaks and provide them an opportunity to enjoy adventure sports like trekking, paragliding, and camping. The quite hilly town of Kasauli is not as much commercial as the state capital Shimla. But it s decked with some of the most beautiful resorts and budget hotels where the guests can enjoy their stay. Kasauli Regency tops the list of good hotels in the town. Baikunth Resort, Bird View Resort, Hotel Alasia, Blossom Resort etc is some of the best places to stay and enjoy the modern amenities, efficient services and great hospitality. The hill station is well-connected with all the modes of transports. The nearest airport to Kasauli is at Chandigarh and Shimla and the nearest railway station is at Kalka and Solan. So get ready for the pristine air of this stunning hill station that soothe your soul and rejuvenate you so that you are ready to face the world once back at home.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/hill-station-tour-to-kasauli.htm - Article Side

Sandeep Pandey - About Author:
Marvel at the beauties of the wonderful country of India with the guidance of a Holiday Packages and make your holiday a moment to cherish forever.a Kasauli Tours are the best way to glorify all that the country holds adorn the beauty of the country in a proper manner.

Article Keywords:

Kasauli Tours , Kasauli hill Station Tours , Tours to Kasauli ,Kasauli Hill Station , Kasauli Hill Station India Tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!