Kerala is regarded as the best tourist destination of the India because of its interesting culture, romantic ambience and an ethereal peace that envelopes this heavenly place. There can be nothing more romantic than a honeymoon in Kerala where you will be spellbound by the breezy backwaters, the palm-fringed serene beaches, the emerald green forests, the hypnotic lakes, the cascading waterfalls, the seductive hills, the magical culture and an interesting wildlife.

Kerala sightseeing: During your holiday in Kerala, you will have plenty to see. From the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary to the nostalgia-evoking churches & Hindu temples- you will get a taste of everything you aspire. The backwaters (especially those of Alleppey), the lagoons and the silent rivers will greet you everywhere you go. Make sure to get up, close and personal with these charming backwaters by hiring a houseboat. The ethereal moment will stay with you till the very end of your life! Munnar hill resort is another fabulous, cool destination for a romantic honeymoon in Kerala. The picturesque landscape of Munnar will cast an alluring spell in your heart and the sight & sound of birds will titillate you.

If you have a fetish for beaches, head to the popular ones in Kovalam, Kochi, Alappuzha and Poovar. Sports lovers can also indulge in heart-pumping activities of kayaking, canoeing, angling, surfing, rafting, boating and paragliding.

Where to stay: There is no dearth of resorts or hotels in this green-carpeted Kerala. From luxurious resorts to budget hotels to forest rest houses to beach cottages, you can lay your hands on anything (as per your requirement & budget). Also, browse through some attractive Kerala holiday packages, inclusive of honeymoon in Kerala package, Kerala sightseeing, and a well-informed Kerala travel guide to tiptoe into this emerald, wet world without any worries or hassles.

Major Kerala attractions: Make sure to visit some of these interesting tourist spots during your holiday in Kerala:

â€¢ Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary

â€¢ Wynaad Wildlife Reserve

â€¢ Sabarimala (a pilgrim destination in Thiruvananthapuram)

â€¢ Backwaters of Alleppey â€¢ Munnar hill station

â€¢ Parambikulam Sanctuary

â€¢ Athirappilly Waterfalls

â€¢ Lakshadweep Islands at Arabian Sea

Doâ€™s and Donâ€™ts: During your holiday in Kerala

â€¢ Do not disrespect local customs, traditions and religious rites â€¢ Maintain all rules & regulations while entering Hindu temples

â€¢ Do not get too close with the wild langoors

When to visit Kerala: The best time to buy the Kerala holiday packages is between October-March. Weather is pleasant and less wet during this time paving way for plenty of outdoor activities & sightseeing. The festive season is also at its peak during this time.

Local festivals: Kerala is predominantly a Hindu state. But you will find a number of people from other castes & creeds as well thus lending the state a cosmopolitan character. All major Indian festivals are celebrated with great gusto. Other popular local festivals are Onam (the harvest festival), the Ettamanur Festival (elephant festival), Nehru Cup Snake Boat Race and The Ashtamudi Craft & Art Festival.
