Until and unless you die, you cannot actually go to heaven. But here on Earth, you can still have a taste of that heavenly feel by sailing on to this exotic land of Kerala. A honeymoon in Kerala is the best way to commence on your matrimonial journey as this land promises romance at its very best. The silent valleys, the serene backwaters, the cascading waterfalls and the quaint hills can actually create such a perfect ambience of bliss and solace that you will fall in love with yourself all over again. It's no wonder that this southern state of India has been embellished with the tag of "God's country". Its natural splendor and resplendence is spellbinding for one and all.

Kerala holiday package is your eye to a world with such captivating beauty that your heart will seem to leave that mundane body and travel far across to an ethereal planet. The hills that lie here are breathtakingly beautiful. They are not just awe-evoking for their scenic charms but are also worth exploring. Munnar resort is a brilliant place for that quintessential honeymoon in Kerala.

Kerala, being a coastally situated state, offers some enamoring sea beaches. But unlike the overcrowded, ultra glamorous beaches of the plush cities, the ones here are bathed in that tranquil quaintness. The waves are eerie and radiate that sense of romance. The sands are soft & inviting while the coast is lined with palm trees. The sun, sky and the cool breeze combine to work magic on your mind. Yet, it is the backwater which is the prior reason why everyone loves to come for a holiday in Kerala. The sedate backwaters, the silent lagoons and the rippling lakes dot this majestic state at every point. Exploring the depths of these backwaters on the traditional houseboats can be an erotically romantic affair.

Then there are those shining, sparkling waterfalls whose mighty leap from high points can be astoundingly beautiful. Kerala holiday packages also brings you opportunities to head to wildlife excursions in those popular jungles and sanctuaries like Periyar national park, Chinnar wildlife sanctuary, Silent Valley, Eravikulam national park and Kumarakom bird sanctuary.

Kerala is said to be the mother of Ayurveda. You can experience spas, massage therapies, yoga and other healing medications in their most pristine form. Besides, to experience the real Kerala, you must enjoy elephant rides, watch out for the fishermen from the quiet beaches and take part in the cultural dance & drama. Great food and luxurious resorts will furthermore enrich your whole experience of that soulful holiday in Kerala.
