If you are looking for relaxation of both mind & soul and an unbelievably delightful experience then you should go for a holiday in Kerala. The place is noted for its beguiling backwaters, splendid view points, serene atmosphere, rich flora and fauna and thrillingly brilliant hill stations. Newly wedded can go for a Kerala honeymoon which can be a perfect start to a beautiful new chapter in their lives.

Call of the Sea: Kerala is a small but wondrous state in India. Located in the south, it leans into the Indian Ocean and has given birth to a number of exotic beaches which are both sedate and full of frolic. Under Kerala holiday packages, you can wade into these inviting sea waters to not merely swim & bathe but also for taking a plunge in some of the coolest aqua sports like boating, para gliding, rowing, water skiing, etc. The sea, akin to a seductive temptress, shall lure you into its embrace from where there shall be no looking back. Indeed, the charm is so incalculably high that you shall get forlorn into the tresses of the waves and the breeze from the palm trees. In all likelihood, you shall desire to extend your holiday in Kerala till eternity because of the naturalness of these beaches.

Bumping into backwaters: While the virginity of these beaches do tell a fairy tale to our soothing minds, they are still no match for the one-of-a-kind, surreal, ethereal backwaters that Kerala has so magnificently carved out. If you are on a honeymoon in Kerala, then surely romance will take total control of your senses; so arousing and erotic can be the beauty of the backwaters, shy streams, ripple-filled lakes and silent lagoons. And it can be a real treat to the soul if you jump aboard on those house boats and sail deep into these magnetic water bodies. With dense jungles on both sides and the hoard of fishermen dotted here and there, you shall feel ecstatic under that azure heaven and golden sinking sun.

Wail of the wild: Kerala holiday packages introduce you to the wild side of the nature with great fiesta. Amidst the roaring waterfalls and the singing cuckoos, the wail of some of the mightier beasts can be extremely thrilling. While there are those wildlife sanctuaries and bird parks where you can hop into any day, it will be really a goosebump-ride if you can journey into those dense jungles.

Other delights: Holiday in Kerala is chiefly all about natural grandeur with the waterfalls, rivers, seas and lagoons infesting your life. But you can't resist those cultural shows, the traditional elephant rides, the exotic hotels, the ancient healing therapies and the sumptuous meals!
