Manali Tours: a Scintillating and Enchantingly Beautiful Hill Stations by Sandeep Pandey

Article published on July 20th 2012 | Vacations

Manali, a scintillating and enchantingly beautiful hill station of Northern India is juts 40 km away from the Kullu Valley in Northern state of Himachal Pradesh. Quaint and charming Manali is perched at an elevation of 2,050 m above the sea level in great Himalayan Ranges with River Beas the smoothly meanders through the town making it even more alluring and admirable. Magical snow-covered mountains, deep down gorgeous valleys, cascading waterfalls, snow-covered meadows, fruit orchards, scented deodar and pine trees and above all the pleasant climatic conditions make Manali one of the most sought after hill stations of India. The dazzling beauty of this hill station allure visitors from across the world to get absorbed in itâ€™s tranquilly and glittering beauty and feel blessed by the nature.

Enjoying holidays in Manali with your close ones in the beautiful surroundings overwhelms the heart with peaces and beauty and compel the visitors to visit this dazzling hill station again and again. It is perfect holiday destination for nature lovers, adventure freaks, honeymooners, tourists and vacationers who want to spend some quality time with family and friends in calm and serene surroundings. Summers in India, especially summer vacations, is the perfect time for the tourists to visit this hill station to get rid of scorching heat of plains and get mesmerized by the beauty of nature that transports them to a heavenly world.

An awe-inspiring hill station of Manali never fails to surprise its guests with some of the best places to see and explore. Guests can choose among the various tailored based Manali holiday packages to meet their expectations and budget. On a sightseeing tour guest can visit Hadimba Temple which is an ancient cave temple dedicated to Devi Hidimba for which people have great faith and devotion. Vashisht Temple and hot water springs is also a worth visiting site which is situated just 3 km from Manali across the River Beas in the quaint village named Vashisht. The hot springs with medicinal properties is a great attraction among the visitors and new modern bathhouses with Turish -style showers are arranged for the convenience of its visitors so that they can rid of their diseases. Solang Valley and Rohtang Pass are the delightful sites for nature lovers and adventure freaks that provides them the facilities to enjoy skiing, mountain biking, photography etc. Manali-Keylong road at Rohtang Pass is the highest to enjoy panoramic view of surrounding snow-clad mountains and misty clouds. The Rahala waterfall is an amazing point where one can see the tremendous speed of waterfalls that fall from such a great heights. Those who are interested in exciting sports can have fun at Lahaul, Spiti, Kangra and Zanskara Ranges where they can indulge in various exiting and thrilling fun-filled adventure activities. The heights of these ranges offer its visitors the panoramic views of glittering sunsets and monasteries which truly is a retreat for them.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/manali-tours-a-scintillating-and-enchantingly-beautiful-hill-stations.htm - Article Side

Sandeep Pandey - About Author:
So if you are planning a vacation at the hill station then Manali is perfect choice for you. The hilly town of glorious sight is full of natural bounties and beauty that it is ready to open in front of you. Various a Manali Tours Package as designed and customized by a India Holiday Package will surely enchant you and fill your heart with the golden memories that are worth cherishing through out the life.

Article Keywords:
Manali Tours,Manali Holidays,Manali Tour Packages,Manali Himachal Pradesh Tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!