Mysore Hotels: Tiptoe into a Historical Land by Sanjana Singh

Article published on July 18th 2012 | Vacations

Mysore, situated in south India, is a historically rich city that boasts of several monuments and historical edifices. Mysore also takes pride in its temples and picturesque landscape. The gardens like the Brindavan Gardens are also quite beautiful. Other popular attractions of Mysore are Mysore Palace, Gumbaz and St. Philomenaâ€™s Church. The Mysore Zoo is another interesting place to head to if you wish to see some animals and birds from close range. The famous Srirangapatnam Fort is another must visit. Mysore also houses a beautiful mosque in Jama Masjid and a brilliant temple called the Chamundeswari Temple.

Mysore hotels come in a wide range of rates. All the Mysore hotels offer hospitality and complete comfort. The food served in these hotels is quite delicious as well though you may also eat out in restaurants. Mysore can be visited round the year but the best time for a visit is between October-March. You are advised to buy a Mysore tour package and book Mysore hotels in advance. That will help you avoid hassle and save a lot of money as well.

Jaipur trip: Jaipur, situated in northern India in the state of Rajasthan, is another prolific holiday destination. It is defined by its huge assortment of monuments, palaces and forts. The grandeur of this city also referred to as pink city for its pink colored buildings, is such that people from far-off countries come to Jaipur for a royal wedding. Jaipur has a rich historical archive of colossal palaces and grand monuments like the City Palace and the Hawa Mahal. The Jantar Mantar is an astronomical observatory and worth a visit. Other popular attractions of Jaipur are the Amber Fort and Nahargarh Fort. Also check out the famous Albert Museum which has a rich collection of historical artifacts.

Jaipurâ€™s rich traditional culture has its own charm. The palaces will remind you nostalgically of the old glorious times while the culture will deeply interest a history lover. Be it the opulence of the monuments or the richness of the Jaipur hotels, you will love every bit of your Jaipur tour. You are advised to buy a Jaipur tour package and book Jaipur hotels in advance. That would exempt you of last minute hassles.

During your Jaipur tour, you must also enjoy a ride on camels or the elephants. The experience will certainly be a memorable one. There are many good restaurants which serve hygienic and delicious food. Alternatively, you can also eat at your Jaipur hotels. So, travel to Jaipur and create unforgettable memories.

Trip to Katra: Katra is another charming holiday destination on the Indian map. It is situated in the state of Jammu & Kashmir in north India and lies close to the famous Vaishno Devi shrine. Katra is serene, pleasant and a beautiful hill station which serves as a pilgrim as well as a holiday destination. Vaishno Devi Temple that lies nearby is the biggest attraction of Katra.

Best time to visit Katra is definitely during the summer months of March-November when the climate is pretty pleasant. Katra hotels and resorts offer excellent stay. Apart from Katra hotels, you can also stay in lodges or guest houses. There are some great restaurants and food joints that serve good food. You can also eat at your Katra hotels. So, head to Katra this summer and get a spiritual experience.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/mysore-hotels-tiptoe-into-a-historical-land.htm - Article Side

Sanjana Singh - About Author:
Hungry Bags, the number one Tour Operator in India, offers excellent and reasonably priced holiday packages, honeymoon packages including stay in the best a hotels in Mysore, a hotels in Jaipur and a Katra hotels.

Article Keywords:
Mysore hotels, Jaipur hotels, Katra hotels, hotels in Mysore, hotels in Jaipur, hotels in Katra

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!