While everyone loves holidays, some like to put the element of luxury at the very center of their stay to recuperate from the hectic work commitments and busy life. For such people, experience matters more than anything and they are ready to pay the quoted price to get a stately treatment. Luxury hotels & resorts Maldives promises the same to its vacationers and they sure like to raise the bar in whatever they do.

Plenty on the Platter

Vacationers often complain about the limited number of options to choose from in case of luxury hideouts and getaways. Maldives makes sure that their guests don't say the same in its case by providing more than enough on the platter. There are renowned names in hospitality to choose from in Maldives and surely there is fair chance you would select one before the list will exhaust. There is Anantara Naladhu with private homes with front pools and Huvafenfushi known for its natural aquatic marvels. If one is looking for something grand, then there is One&Only Reethi Rah. In short, the list is inexhaustible.

Private Islands

There is something about owning an island that fascinates everyone, and there are a number of options spending holidays in Maldives offers. If one wishes to have an entire island to oneself, then there is W Retreat & Spa Maldives. Located at Fesdu Island, W Retreat & Spa offers total seclusion for its guests as the island is uninhabited, of course with the exception of the staff that would assist you in wherever you wish. After a little tour, guests can have the "Cast Away" experience with all the amenities of modern world. With private plunge pools, sun decks, and outdoor rainforest showers, it could be what you have always been looking for. And there is kite surfing, water skiing, windsurfing, and wakeboarding to try if you are the adventure kind.

On Water Dwelling

If a vacationer had had enough of the land in the past vacations, then Soneva Gili offers dwelling in 45 luxury villas that are literally build on the blue waters. These villas accentuate the beauty of the nature and make sure that guests receive every percent of luxury that land has on offer. For the ones who wish to be left alone, there are seven detached Crusoe residences that could only be reached by boat. Being so close to water, one can surely assume water activities like snorkeling, diving, deep-sea fishing, and windsurfing to be part of the offer. For food, one can get it prepared on the villa's deck or can rush to East-meets-West fusion fare.

While these were a handful of luxury resorts Maldives, there is a long list of others that are equally worthy to be inhabited. Some of them are Anantara Kihavah Villas, Soneva Fushi, Coco Palm Bodu Hithi and Four Seasons Landaa Giraavaru.

Choose any one of them and you would only be promised pure luxury and experience that would go on to become one of the finest memories of your life.

So, prepare to experience platinum this holiday.
