Sepulveda - a Village in Segovia by Kittsie Thomas

Article published on March 15th 2012 | Vacations

There are many attractive villages in Spain which are worth a visit. Sepulveda is one of such villages because of its ideal location, in the historic province of Segovia in Spain. The population of the village is small as only one thousand people live here. This is a small village but it has wonderful infrastructure that can impress any visitor to this wonderful place. There are restaurants, shops, museums and appropriate accommodation facilities in this village of Spain.

Sepulveda can be easily approached from many places in Spain. There are many travelers who arrive in Sepulveda from Madrid because this is one of the most convenient routes. The best arrangement for a traveler is to have at least one night's stay at this village so that it can be explored with ease and comfort. There are many people who love to stay in the rural houses of Sepulveda. Apart from this, there are small hotels offering their services in this respect.

One of the reasons for the fame of Sepulveda is the vultures. There are hundreds of vultures that keep flying over this village the whole day and they reside in the rocky canyons of this village. These vultures make the overall environment of the village unique and worth experiencing. Apart from that the village has lots of other attractions to offer its visitors, since Sepulveda is also a historical village.

There is a church in Sepulveda which was built in the twelfth century. The name of this church is Iglesia Santiago. There is a beautiful center in this church which appeals to people of all ages. There is another church in this village which gives awesome views since itâ€™s located on a steep area. It was also established in the twelfth century. The name of this church is Iglesia de la Virgin de la Pena. The church of Iglesia del Salvador is also situated in Sepulveda and this famous church was originally established in the eleventh century.

The best time to visit Sepulveda is during the months of August and September. Bull running is loved in this part of Spain and the same is enjoyed in the end of August. Similarly the famous fiestas of Sepulveda are held in the end of September. Cuisines involving meat dishes are famous in this village and people love to eat delicious lamb and stews from the restaurants of Sepulveda.
