Dubai originally known for its oil wells has emerged in to a modern city now known quite well for its exquisite architecture, luxuries hotels, sports events, and the list is never-ending. Dubai has become a major business hub since a free trade zone was built around the Jabel Ali port which attracted huge investors who ended up becoming residents of the city thus, compelling the Sheikhs of Dubai to invest huge sums of money on building huge airports, strong infrastructures, large malls, and so on. Dubai city tour would be excellent option to view all these superb investments in a single day and enjoy breathtaking views of the city.

Dubai City Tour gives you a 360 degree view of the city whilst viewing attractive destinations for both kids and adults. It starts at the Dubai Creek to give you a glimpse of the old Dubai then taking you to the spice market followed by Gold Souk in Deira after viewing which you would agree to the fact that Dubai is known as the "City of Gold"™.

The next stop of the Dubai City Tour would be the Dubai museum built inside the Fahidi Fort which has artifacts showing the life of the Emiratis (Locals of the Emirate) before the discovery of oil in Dubai. Dubai City Tour then takes you to the Jumeirah Mosque, a stone structure built as a tribute to the modern architecture which would give you a direct experience to explore the Islamic culture, within the mosque is decorated with rich Arabic calligraphy and ornamental pieces. The beachside malls and boutiques along with the open beaches are a unique shopping experience for visitors to Dubai.

Dubai City Tour then takes you to the Fourth tallest 5 star hotel standing on a artificial island proudly known as the Burj Al Arab meaning the "Towers of Dubai"™. Jumeirah Palm Island is the next destination of the Dubai City Tour which has been built artificially in the form of a Palm tree with the help of many small islands. It consists of the Atlantis Hotel Resort, beach side villas, restaurants, shopping malls, health spas and many other luxurious stops.

Final destination of the Dubai City Tour is the Burj Khalifa the pride of Dubai and standing tall at 829m coined at the Tallest Building in the World. It is surrounded by Down Town Dubai, a 2 square kilometer land comprising landmarks like Burj Khalifa, Dubai Mall, Dubai Fountain and Armani Residences and Hotel Resorts. Dubai City Tour ends here leaving you with a glamorous picture of Dubai. Be sure to book you Dubai City Tour with government registered companies to avoid any hustles once you are in Dubai and to enjoy your trip to the fullest.
