Singapore is a country which consists of people of Indian, Chinese and Malaysian origins. It has evolved from a small British colony to one of the fastest developing urban city. So donâ€™t miss this unique experience and plan out a Singapore tour package immediately. You can start your Singapore experience with Singapore Flyer. This 165-meter-high Flyer is Singapore's version to the London Eye. It is one of the worldâ€™s largest observation wheels. Your tour package Singapore should include the Singapore flyer as itâ€™s a must see attraction.

The Buddha Tooth Relic Temple and Museum is a quite place for those who love history and heritage. It contains a number of Buddha statues carved out beautifully. The tooth relic of Buddha is the one to watch out for, which is not open always and so look out for packages to Singapore which can accommodate this.

The Changi Chapel and Museum is a wonderful place to spend an afternoon as. A bus can take you to this place easily. On display are pictures and artifacts of the Second World War a visit here is a good inclusion in your packages to Singapore. The Sands SkyPark is an iconic building in Singapore. There is an observation deck for the tourist to get a magnificent view of the city. The view of sunset from here is just spectacular. The Sands SkyPark can be an interesting place to visit in Singapore tour package. The Merlion is a statue of a mythical creature with the head of a lion and the body of a fish. This symbol is the mascot of Singapore. The statue is 8.6 meters tall. Itâ€™s also fountain where water flows from the Merlionâ€™s mouth. A visit to the Merlion is a must on your tour package Singapore.

G-MAX Reverse Bungee is a must for those adrenaline filled people who want a thrilling experience. This bungee jump is a reverse direction bungee defying the gravity. Here one soars into the cityâ€™s skyline with a breathtaking gush of high adrenaline. For all those adventure people, this reverse bungee is a must on the Singapore tour package. Another enchanting view of the city skyline is from the Singapore Cable Car. One can easily view the Sentossa Island and the harbor. A cable car can accommodate 8 people at a time so having a big touring group is not a problem. Most of the packages to Singapore do have this on offer. The best way to finish the day is the night safari. This place currently has a total of 1,040 animals of which 120 species are endangered. This safari is only open at night, so it is the best thing to do before heading to the bed. There are many cultural and tribal shows organized here. The night safari should be a part of your tour package Singapore.
