Article published on April 28th 2012 | Web Design

"The aim of art is to represent not the outward appearance of things, but their inward significance."

- Aristotle

Below mentioned are some of the finest art schools in USA. Letâ€™s have a look at their art school logo designs:

1. Rhode Island School of Design:

The Rhode Island School of Design (RISD) is one of the oldest colleges for art. It was founded in 1877 and is located in Providence, Rhode Island. RISD was ranked as one of the finest schools in the country according to U.S. News and World Report in 2010. Their trademark is a simple and intricate design crafted in black and white. It is a round badge with contains college initials and is accompanied by elaborate patterns. The college name with its founding year is scripted in straight fonts on the edges of the badge. Overall, the emblem is classic and timeless.

2. School of the Art Institute of Chicago (SAIC):

The School of the Art Institute of Chicago is one of the largest accredited independent schools in USA. It was founded in 1866 and is located in Loop, Chicago. Although this school is renowned for its art programs, their trademark is simple and sophisticated. It consists of the college name initials in thick and straight fonts in white color over a black background. The design is timeless and classic.

3. Irvine Valley College:

Irvine Valley College was established in 1985 and is part of the California Community Colleges system. Their emblem consists of an illustration in white color with an image of an open book. Latin words â€œA Posse Ad Esseâ€• are inscribed at the bottom which mean â€œFrom possibility to actualityâ€ Illustration of weeds surrounds the image. The prominent colors in the illustration are blue and white which makes it sophisticated and contemporary.

4. Art Center College of Design:

This private college was founded in 1930 and is located in Pasadena, California. The collegeâ€™s art program has frequently been ranked number 1 by Design Intelligence and U.S. News & World Report, and Business Week. Their brand mark consists of an orange circle accompanied by the college name which is written in gray colored fonts. The combination of gray and orange makes it attractive and eye catching.

5. Maryland Institute College of Art:

MICA was established in 1826 and is located in Baltimore, Maryland. This is one of the finest and oldest art schools in the United States and was ranked number 2 U.S. News and World Report in 2008. Their trademark consists of the institute initials in thick and black fonts separated by thin vertical lines. The design consists of shades of gray and brown color that gives it an earthy touch. Overall, this Christian school logo is basic and contemporary.

In a nutshell, the emblems of these famous art schools are contemporary and artistic. They consist of intricate patterns with bright colors which show the distinctness and creativity of these schools.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/web-design-articles/let-s-find-out-more-about-the-famous-art-school-logo-designs.htm - Article Side

Tammy Becker - About Author:
Tammy Becker is a senior graphic design consultant at a professional graphic design company. For more information a art school logo please contact at ohio state a Christian school logo.

Article Keywords:
art school logo, Christian school logo

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!